Thousands have already been killed by this most certain and and Rat and Mouse Destroyer, but there are thousands still in the cellars of this city, as well as in the granaxies of the country, to the great destruction of property, that ought to be fed on Keating's Preparation. Bats and Mico are not only destructive to valuable property, but they even sometimes destroy the lives of children by their bites. We would suggest to all who would get rid of these troublescome animals, to try a box of REATING'S DESTROYER, at once, and they will soon be missing. They may be destroyed at this time of year, without producing the disagreeable small attendant upon the explosion of their bodies, and a consequent decay of animal matter. In the spring, Keating intends holding a Rat-lification meeting of all the live rate, in proof of the anitary reflects of his Rat and Mouse Destroyer.
