REV. GEORGE COPWAY, the eloquent Indian, | A RICH APPAIR IN PHILADELPHIA.—Some time previous to the presidential election, two young clerks in mercantile houses in Market street, Philadelphia, entered into a contract, by which, if General Scott lost, the whig was to saw and ans, and sing some of their most remarkable split a half cord of bickory wood in front of their boarding house in Arch street, and carry t to the room of the other; and in the event of Gen. Pierce's defeat the other was to do the same—the forfeit being $20. The defeat ef ways. We hope Masonic Hall will be crowded | Gen. Scott threw this rather severe task upon the young whig; and out of merciful considerations, pine wood was substituted for hickory, and the splitting was dispensed with. On Wednesday afternoon, the feat was performed according to the stipulations, in the presence of a arge number of persons. The young whig ent red upon the work with spirit, wearing, meanwhile, his ordinary street clothes, and a pair of kid gloves. Occasionally, his friends in the loarding house carried out to him some refreshinents upon a silver salver, which served to heighten the interest, and increase the merriment. Before the whole of the wood was sawed, several hundred persons had collected. and upon the completion of the job, three hearty cheers were given. A Great Blessing to the Afflicted! Fills, used these Pills for several years in his practice, before manner as to make them known throughout the countr

This learned physicish felt the same repugns hose unscrupulous empiries who obtains their useless no trums upon the public, and rely upon a system of putling trums upon the public, and they upon a system of pulmage to sustain them. Convinced, however, of the real value of the Liver Pills, and influenced by the platin dichabe of duty, the Doctor finally secrificed his delicate feelings on the altar of public good. His great medicine has not disappointed the expectations of the medical practitioners, at whose instance he was induced to forego his inclinations. From every quarter do we hear the most gratifying accounts of its wonderful curative effects—the East and the West, the North and the South, are alite laden with "Hidings of great joy" from the afflicted. These wonderful Pills have completely conquered that great scourge of America, the Liver Complaint.
