STATE TREASURER.

One of the first and most important duties to be performed by the next Legislature, is the elec-tion of a State Treasurer. The performance of this duty, devolves upon the Democratic majoriion of an honest man, and a sound noorat.

From several of our exchanges, we learn that Gen. Bickel, the present Treasurer, will be a candidate for re election to this office. We are surprised at this, and will be more astonished if he persists in pressing his claims, or permits his the part of Allegheny, will begin to think there friends to press him, upon the party for re elec-is "something rotten in Denmark," and look tion.
