WM. L. HIRST. Chairman. WM. CURTIS, WM. HENRY WEISH, Secretaries. THE SHERIFF AND THE COMMISSIONERS.

It is a scriptural saying that "a house divided against itself cannot stand." It is one of inspired wisdom, and one in which we all culate at six per cent for dates from six months erosity with which his noble heart, forgetful of The whig officials of Allegheny county are, at the present time, a very "divided house."-The Sheriff and Commissioners are at loggerheads, and one of the parties have already made an appeal to the legislature to redress their grievances. The County Commissioners request the legislature to grant them permission to annually appoint a County Jailor, and that the appointment shall be subject to the acquiesence of the Judge of Quarter Sessions.

This arrangement would suit the Commission ers admirably, for they could then annoy the Sheriff to any extent they pleased in changing his subordinates. We will not say that they have a desire to annoy him, but it is well known that they have no love for him. This is altogether a quarrel in the whig house and we are not deeply interested in it. But, we

"opinion," as the "Court" would say. Mr. Magill is the Sheriff of the county. He is responsible for the safe keeping of the prisoners, and the interests of the people demand that he should have subordinates in whom he can place confidence. He is, in fact, the Jailor, and responsible for all the acts of that official, as well as those of every turnkey about the prison. To our mind, he should, therefore, be permitted to select his own assistants, and we have no doubt but he will choose those who are competent to discharge their duties faithfully. We have no political love for the whig Sheriff, but we respect him as a fellow-citizen, and believe that he will discharge the duties of his office as faithfully as any other whig could do. The next item in the petition is that the law shall also empower said County Commissioners prisoners; said allowance not to cost more than eight cents for each prisoner per day. The adoption of this clause would no doubt be a saving to the county, but, we are apprehensive that the poor prisoners would not live very sumptuously upon eight cents worth of provisions daily. We do not know what this portion of the prison arrangement is costing now, but if the Sheriff is speculating upon it for his individual benefit, it should be taken from him. But at the same time, the Commissioners should remember that eight cents worth of victuals will not satisfy their official stomachs for twenty-four hours.

There cannot be a doubt that there is something radically wrong in the management of our specie on hand compares very favorably with the Jail, but we cannot imagine that the Commissioners' eight cents of food per diem, will reform it in any respect, or make it more comfortable to the unfortunate's who become its inmates.-A system of this kind is mere barbarism, and if | Notes Mscounted Bills of Exchange carried out, we had better abandon all our theories about humanity in prisons. The petition goes on as follows:-"And further, That said County Commissioners shall have the control and supervision of the Prison, and Stocks and Bonds of other Corpobuildings and grounds thereto attached; and to farnish all materials necessary to keep said Prison in good order, and the prisoners in a comfortable and healthy condition.

And that hereafter, the turnkey fee, as provided for by law, shall be paid monthly by the Jailor, into the County Treasury, for the use of said

The Commissioners propose to keep the pris- Capital Stock... oners "in a comfortable and healthy condition" on eight cents a day! If they will only make their plan apparent, there are a great many citizens who now complain of high prices in the market, will feel "comfortable" and give them their blessing.

The case is one in which we believe the Commissioners to be right in some things, and wrong in many others. But as it is a Whig quarrel, we will look on with the same complacency the woman did who saw her husband fighting a bear, we do not care much which whips.

We are rejoiced to learn that our recent suggestions in regard to the wonts of the old Pittsburgh Merchant, Issao Harris, are likely to be carried out by our mercantile friends. A brief period he has to sojourn in this world.

WEEKLY MONEY ARTICLE.

We have little to write this week in relation to mey matters. There has been no unusual deoney now wanted is principally for the regular erations of trade.

The stock market remains without any particilar change. b It will be seen by the figures in our table that there have been some slight alteraions since our last. Pittsburgh 8's have advanced $2, and Allegheny 6's, $1. Exchange Bank has advanced $1. Pittsburgh and Boston lopper Stock has advanced $8, and Forrest has dyanced $3,50. Western Insurance Stock has declined a shade, and Ohio and Ponnsylvania Railroad has declined $8,50 per share. In the Eastern cities, money appears plenty.
