PROGRESS OF SPECULATION

We have observed with little interest, the progress of speculation and extravagance throughout our country...

But while we hold with hope and pleasure, the general progress of the nation, we must not forget the present state of affairs...

And it is a fact creditable to the citizens of this Commonwealth, that while we are not behind our brethren of other States...

THE XXXII CONGRESS

The members of Congress were not so late during the last session as has been generally supposed. A large number of acts, both public and of a private nature, were passed.

Besides what are regarded as the usual appropriations for objects already authorized by law, and annually appropriated for, there are others that will be new to most of our readers.

CHARTERS VALLEY RAILROAD

Our business men should remember that the Stockholders for this important Road will meet on next Monday. In speaking of it the Washington Reporter says: "Everything which depends upon the action of Pittsburgh...

NEW COURTS.—The Washington Reporter is alarmed at a project now on foot to organize a new county out of portions of Fayette and Washington counties...

THE NEW MARKET

The Democratic rule has again commenced and under the most glorious auspices. The Cabinet selected meets the cordial approval of all classes...

Comparisons are odious, but before we whip about the present Cabinet and their actions in the future, let us recall to our minds the history of this country...

It is the poverty of the banks in specie relative to their liabilities, which has created all the present trouble in the market.

The earnings, after deducting all charges, including interest, amount to $85,200 85, equal to 94 per cent. upon the issued stock of $90,000.

WEEKLY MONEY MARKET

The tightness of the money market in the east, has had a corresponding effect in our own neighborhood. We are informed that the banks are discounting but little, and bankers are waiting for a more cheering report from the east.

The money market is very tight, and the banks are discounting but little, and bankers are waiting for a more cheering report from the east.
