INDISPENSABLE TO HOUSEKEEPERS!

Something Better, and more Economical than Soda, Cream Tartar, or any other Preparation in existence.

WILLIAMS' CHEMICAL YEAST, OR BAKING POWDER—For raising Bread, Biscuit, Griddle and Johnny Cakes, Puddings, Pot-Pies, Corn Bread, Sweet Cakes, Apple Dumplings, Pie Crust, &c. This article is one that every FAMILY, HOTEL, BOARDING HOUSE,
Eating Saloon, Ship, Steamboat, Vessel, Canal Boat, &c., will find, upon a careful trial, to be the very thing needed every single day of their existence.

It must supersede the use of soda in all cases, where it is used, as it saves the expense of milk, eggs, shortening, spoiled bread, and the trouble and expense of procuring good yeast, and in every way being economical.

Less of it is required for the dough to rise before baking than of any other preparation in existence, and consequently, bread may be made in a few minutes.

It will keep for years in any climate, being perfectly dry. It is entirely free from alum, and other deleterious substances, and is one that every housekeeper should have in use.

Ladies, French and Book-keeping, by Double Entry, each.....$5,00
Drawing and Painting in Water Colors, each.....$10,00
Lessons on the Piano and Guitar, at Professor's charges.
Tuition in the Preparatory Department.....$3,00
MANSFIELD SEMINARY, is located about two miles from Pittsburgh, near the junction of the Noblestown and Washington Plank Roads. The surrounding scenery is not excelled for its beauty, and the neighborhood is proverbially good for its health. On the premises is a spring of soft water, which for purity and excellence, is said to be unsurpassed. Also, a Bath House.

This institution is designed to be permanent, the Principal having leased the ground (about five acres,) and built a large and commodious edifice, for the purposes of a school for a term of years. The Proprietor, Mr. Hanshell Brown, gill treat, when requisite, additional buildings.

Mrs. Kerr, (formerly Miss Margaret A. M'Kaig, of Washington Female Seminary,) will give particular attention to the domestic arrangements of the School. No efforts on the part of the Proprietor or of the Teachers will be spared, to render this enterprise worthy the patronage of parents and guardians. Such English education, without exposing them to the hazardous influences of more populous communities. Special attention will be paid to the moral, as well as intellectual training of the pupils. A due regard for the Sabbath, and a regular attendance at Church, will be required of those under the immediate care of the Instructor.

The following gentlemen have been solicited to act as a Visiting Committee, to whom also reference can be made:
