THE CITY POST.

SATURDAY MORNING.....JUNE 11.

COURT NEWS.

IN THE COURT OF QUARTER SESSIONS, before Hon. Wm. B. McClure, President Judge; and William Boggs and Gabriel Adams, Associates.

The case of the Commonwealth vs. Michael Wild, Harrison Freeman, and S. Stewart, indicted for forcible entry, the jury returned a verdict of guilty, as to Wild and Stewart, and of not guilty as to Foreman.

Commonwealth vs. Rees Davis; Indictment, assault and battery, on oath of Ann Davis. The jury returned a verdict of not guilty, and directed that the County should pay the costs.

Commonwealth vs. Edward M'Caffery; indictment, larceny. The prisoner was charged by D. T. Day, of Allegheny city, with having stolen, on the 17th of May, a show-case containing a number of shoes, valued, with the case, at about sixteen dollars. The prosecutor identified as his property a show-case, which was found in M'Caffery's house at the time of his arrest. The jury returned a verdict of guilty, and the prisoner was remanded.

Commonwealth vs. Abraham Musser; indictment, assault and battery, on oath of F. W. Wanster. The assault complained of took place in Birmingham. The jury returned a bill of five dollars and the costs.

Commonwealth vs. William Pierce; indictment, burglary, &c. The defendant was tried on the same charge at the June Term, but owing to one juror standing out no verdict was rendered. Pierce is accused of entering the house of Rev. Dr. Herron, on the corner of Wayne and Penn streets, and taking a lot of ladies' wearing apparel. The evidence was very conflicting; the defence attempted to prove an alibi, and their effort was resisted by the prosecuting counsel.

THE DISTRICT COURT was not in session yesterday. It meets this morning, however.

ENTERTAINMENTS.—This comedy, produced for the first time on Thursday night, is one of the best of satires on the follies existing in American society at the present time. Without possessing literary merit to any great extent, Extremes will always be admired and be popular. By a judicious grouping of characters on the stage, spirited dialogue, and happy hits, the author keeps up the interest in the play to the final scene. The personages represented in the play have their counterparts in every section of the country—a unscrupulous and slippery politician, such as Higgins, is no rarity; honest and good Mark Mayberry is just such a man as is daily pointed out as a good citizen; while Fred Douglas never arrives in town, but we have such an exhibition of pure chivalry as Bailey so ably represents in the play. The plain sailor, the missionary excitement, and the Rev. Dr. Diddle, each represent Extremes that are noticed every day.

BIRTHS, MARRIAGES, AND DEATHS.—An act passed the Legislature, 3 year or two since, requiring the registration, in the Recorder's office of each county, of all the births, marriages and deaths occurring. Owing to inaccuracies in framing the law, the returns made to-day present a complete exhibit of the failure of the law. From the first of July (the date the law went into effect) to the present time, there were 255 deaths, 308 births, and 268 marriages in the county. As Mark Mayberry would say, "this is a great, a very great country."

Both in the way of marriages and the inevitable consequences, we beat the old man, death, largely—by an "overwhelming majority," as they say in election times.

NEW RAILROAD DEPOT.—Mr. Thompson, President of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company, purchased, during his late visit to this city, a large warehouse, near the canal basin, on Washington street, known as Graff's warehouse. It is the intention of the Company to use this building as a depot for city freight, reserving the "shed" on the wharf for freight to be shipped East and West from here.

M. THOMPSON, the principal violinist of Foster's Ethiopian Opera Troupe, is now in town, and ready for service. The first Concert will be given on Monday evening, and the series will continue for several weeks, without interruption.

From the high encomiums bestowed upon M. Theodore by the eastern press, we incline to the belief that he is hard to beat.

TWO SPLENDID buggies, with leather tops, and four half pipes genuine imported pale brandy, will be sold at Sheriff's sale this afternoon, at 2 o'clock, at that gentleman's auction house, this city. Two red birds, and three canary birds light this evening. Two red birds, and three canary birds, excellent singers, also a quantity of second hand gold and silver watches, jewelry, &c.

HELD TO BAIL.—Charles Murphy, of the Fifth Ward, at whose house Mr. Miller was shot on Wednesday night, was yesterday held to bail by Alderman Major, on a charge of keeping a gambling house. The information was laid by Miller.

EFFECTS OF DISSIPATION.—A woman named Mary Martin, arrested on Thursday night, and taken to the watch-house for drunkenness, was seized with convulsions while in the hands, and was taken home again, where, it is to be hoped, she will remain.

VALUABLE PROPERTY IN THE SIXTH WARD.—This afternoon, at 3 o'clock, on the premises, will be sold by P. M. Davis, Auctioneer, fourteen valuable lots of ground, on Wylie, Franklin and Webster streets.

ASSAULT AND BATTERY.—A man, named George Kerchner, was arrested yesterday, and held to bail, to answer a charge of assault and battery, laid by Jacob Panner. The assault took place on the 7th of May.

RIOT.—Joseph Helter, of Duquesne borough, was committed to jail yesterday for an alleged participation in a riot. Squire Buhoup, of Duquesne, was the committing magistrate.

MAYOR RIDDLE is absent from the city. During his absence, Alderman Buckmaster will attend to the duties of the office.

COMMITTED.—John Cowaly was sent to jail yesterday, by Alderman Major, for an assault and battery committed on Robert Hall.

PAUPERISM.—Workmen have been engaged for several days past in repointing the Monongahela Suspension Bridge.

SALE OF LOTS.—At the sale of lots in Oakland, a day or two since, the average rate for lots was $750.

THEATRE.—The fine comedy of Extremes is announced for to-night, and also the affecting drama of the Old Guard.

VIOLATING CITY ORDINANCES.—John Smith was fined yesterday for violating city ordinances. Satisfactory news.

ALDERMEN BUCKMASTER, acting as Mayor, yesterday sent four persons to jail for vagrancy.

From the Mayor of Rochester.

ROCHESTER, April 7, 1851.

Mr. Solomons—Sir; Having called at your office in the Arcade, and purchased two pairs of your Patent Glasses, I am free to say that I had never used before; they far excelled more than I could have expected; I have given them to others, and can say no other will suit them, as well as I could when a boy.

EXECUTION OF SPRING.

PHILADELPHIA, June 10.

The execution of Arthur Spring occurred at a quarter after eleven o'clock, at the county prison, in presence of about 200 persons. The Rev. Messrs. Street, Knaul and Alexander officiated. The prisoner slept. The prisoner slept. He partook of breakfast this morning, and conversed with the Rev. Mr. Street. He delivered to the latter his watch, and about four hours; the rest of the night was spent in religious exercises. Early this morning a letter from Gov. Bigler was read to the prisoner, stating that the Executive could not grant a pardon. Spring replied that he had brought the gallows a hymn was sung. The Rev. Mr. Street, then asked him in the most solemn manner, whether he had brought the gallows a hymn was sung. The Rev. Mr. On reaching the gallows a hymn was sung. The Rev. Mr. Street, then asked him in the most solemn manner, whether he was not guilty of the murder. He answered "no sir, or he was not guilty of the murder. He answered "no sir, no sir." On being asked whether he was guilty of the murder of Rink, he replied "no sir, I never saw him in my life. A third question was asked, as to the innocence of his son. He said he believed he had no more to do with it than he. He said he believed he had no more to do with it than he had. A prayer was made by Rev. Mr. Knaul, when the rope was put on the neck of the convict. Spring then repeated his own prayer, in which he asserted the innocence of his son, without any qualification. Soon after the drop fell, he died very easily, with but a single contraction of his legs.

SOUTHERN CONVENTION.

MEMPHIS, June 9.

The Southern Convention met this morning, and were addressed by John Bell.

A motion was carried that the Convention meet at Charleston, S. C., on the second Monday of April next.

After other unimportant business, the Convention adjourned sine die.

CINCINNATI, June 10.

A fire broke out last night, in the liquor store of Guirant & Sarran, on Main street, between Columbia and Front, and spread to the adjoining liquor store of R. A. Little & Co., the grocery store of M'Clelleugh, Morris & Co., the iron store of Neave & Free, all of which were greatly injured. The progress of the flames was checked by the falling of Reynolds' & Co.'s warehouse, in the rear of the above buildings. The warehouse contained 600 hogsheads of sugar; a considerable quantity of molasses and other goods, most of which were destroyed. The total loss is not ascertained, but it is fully covered by insurance. Two policies in Rorg; Maltby & Co.'s property were removed at noon yesterday.

MONTREAL, June 9.

A lecture was delivered in this city, by Father Gavazzi, on Sunday night, to a mob collected in such numbers that the police force was stationed near the church, which required the aid of the military. After the meeting pistols were fired by the crowd, whereupon the military fired one round. It is impossible to say how many were wounded. It is believed four or five were killed. The troops are still drawn up near the church, and the mob is at a short distance, evidently prepared for further mischief.

9¼ o'clock, P. M.—I have just met a man wounded in the breast. One man is ascertained to be killed.

BALTIMORE, June 9.

The mail is in from Wilmington, N. C.

The first branch of the City Council passed, by a vote of 14 to 4, the resolution providing for furnishing and distributing to the volunteers, required to make six mile of rope for the Sebastopol Expedition.

The Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Directors yesterday refused to restore the fare between Baltimore and Washington, after the 1st of July, to $1,25.

NEW ORLEANS, June 8.

Cotton quiet, awaiting the steamer—barely 2500 bales sold. Freights have declined to Liverpool 7-16. Exchange, sight, New York, par.

The Black Ball packet sailed for New York to-day at noon, full of passengers, and the steamship Philadelphia, with the California mails.

CHICAGO, June 9.

The National Division of the Sons of Temperance assembled in this city, and is now in session. Most of the States are represented. The Hon. J. R. O'Neal, M. W. P., is in the chair. The Temperance Hall was the place of procession to-day. Alderman Steel and C. L. Magee, Esq., are here.

MONTREAL, June 10.

The Montreal papers condemn the firing of the troops, as having taken place without just cause. Seven were killed, and eleven wounded severely; and many others slightly, and three by the military. All is now quiet; but there is great sensation among the citizens.

MONTREAL, June 10.

The mob at Zion's Church, when Gavazzi was lecturing last night, was immense. Many fired into the house, killed from eighteen to twenty. There is great excitement here.

CINCINNATI, June 10.

James C. Hall, late Postmaster, has been elected President of the Ohio and Mississippi Railroad, vice Judge Ellis, resigned.
