JOHNSON HOUSE, for non payment of the same according to law. As this was a Whig Bank and a Whig Treasurer, we shall probably hear none of these denuncia-tions which were poured out against the Demo-cratic Treasurer, of Columbiana county, when he, virtue of the same authority, compelled the Salem Bank to disgarge the amount of taxes county walked into the effections of the Marion Bank, which had refused to pay its taxes, and took therefrom $1258 12, the amount of taxes, and penalty for 1852. This Crowbar law has met with a great deal of denunciation at the hands of the opposition, but it is the only means that could bring these privileged reg mills to their senses and secure to the Treasury the taxes justly assessed against them.—Portage (O.) This dangerous and often fatal disease had long hat-fied the skill of the most eminent physicians, when the dis-covery of Dr. M'Lane's Liver Pills solved the difficulty, and inted to the world the Great Specific for that complicates islady, which has since attained such widely spread cele brity for its certainty of cure. This successful remedy was the result of many years' study, in which the symptoms re narrowly observed, and are thus described by the Doctor himself:

"Symptoms of a Discused Liver.—Pain in the right side, and sometimes in the left, under the edge of the ribs—the patient being rarely able to the on the left; pain sometimes under the shoulder blade, frequently extending to the top of the shoulder—often mistaken for rhoumatism in the arm: siekness of stomach, and loss of appetito; bowels mostly costly, but sometimes albernate with lax; dull, heavy sensation in the back part of the head; loss of memory, with meaniness of having neglected something; cometimes dry sation in the occe part of the head; loss of memory, wit uneanness of having neelected coundhing; sometimes are cough; weariness and debility; nerrous irritability; fee cold or burning, and prickly sensation of kin; low spirit-lassitade, with disinclination to exercise, although satisfie it would be beneficial. A SONG-DY U. W. GOODWIN

I saw a little maiden,
Of but a teem or two,
Her cheeks were thir and rosy,
Her lauching ayes were blue;
A dainty little thiry,
Not yet a woman quite,
A modest rose-but opening,
And beaming with delight;
Said I, sweat little lady,
Did'st ever have a beaut
I'd like to kiss you dearly,
But it would scare you so;
Bright flowers bloomed around her,
For it was joyous Spring,
A thousand birds were warbling,
And she did with them sing:

thousand birds were warbling;
And she did with them sing:
Oh! I would like to marry,
If I could only find
A pretty little dearie
Just suited to my mind.

I saw another, older
By three sweet years than she;
Oh! she was matchlees, lovely!
Full bloemed maturity!
Her form was round and slender,
Her besom snowy white,
Her halr in glossy ringlets,
Her eyes were parking bright,
Her dress was spodlees muslim,
Arranged with ulcest care,
A wreath of glowing lowers
Eucircled her dark hair;
Her roles was witching muslo.

Entriced her dark hair;
Her volce was witching music,
That chained me while she talked;
Her feet so small and pretty,
I wonder how she walked;
Said she, I'd like to marry,
If I could only find
A pretty little dearie
Just suited to my mind.

I find that all would marry,
From maid to matron old;
Oh, think it not all folly,
As you are often told;
I saw an ancient mindsn—
Of an uncertain ago,
But she had almost frested
Her hour on the stage;
Her brow was wrapt in wrinkles,
Her cheeks were plastered red,
Her teeks were plastered red,
Her hair had left her head;
Here, then, thought I, is wisdom,
Her earthly dreams are flown;
Yor one she is contented
To live and die alone;
End she, I'd like to marry,
If I could only find,
O, Lord! Just any body—
A men of any kind.

Till then I was cold-hearted, And jeered at married life; But now good-unture conque I longed to have a wife;

I longed to have a wife;
And so the charming widow
Has now my hand and heart;
Her three dears and another
Give us a handsome start;
And we are very happy,
My love is true and kind;
Oh, yes, Fre found a dearle,
Just suited to my mind.
And now ye pretty maidens,
Young men and lovers true;
I'll tell you what I'm thinking
You all had better do;
I think you'd better marry,
If you can only find
A pretty little dearle
Just suited to your mind.
