THE CITY POST.

TUESDAY MORNING.....JUNE 14.

COURT NEWS.

IN THE COURT OF QUARTER SESSIONS, before Hon. William B. M'Clure, President Judge; William Boggs and Gabriel Adams, Associate Judges.

Commonwealth vs. Lyndon Tyler; indictment, larceny. The defendant was accused of larceny, in stealing a gold locket and chain, the property of a lady, Mrs. Logue. The evidence was conclusive, and the jury returned a verdict of guilty.

Commonwealth vs. John Johns; indictment, larceny. The defendant, a lad of both right years, was placed on trial for the second offence of this kind; of which he has been guilty. At the last term of Court he was accused of stealing ten dollars, but owing to the extreme youth of the boy, and his promises of better behavior in the future, he was released, on the recognizance of his father. His promises did not affect his after conduct, for a short time since he entered a store in Allegheny city and robbed the till of a small sum. The lad plead guilty, and the Judge directed that he should be taken to the House of Refuge, in Philadelphia.

Commonwealth vs. Thomas M'Quade; indictment, assault and battery, on oath of Joseph George. The defendant in this case is employed on the steamer Luterna, (running between this city and Brownsville,) as mate, and the assault complained of was caused by George, a hack-driver, attempting to go up to the cabin while the boat was landing, in opposition to the rules of the boat. M'Quade put George off the boat. It was charged by the prosecution that he struck him after he was on the wharf-boat. The evidence in regard to the assault was contradictory; M'Quade's good character for peace was proved by the Captain of the boat. The jury returned a verdict of not guilty, and that the defendant should pay the costs.

Commonwealth vs. James Miller indictment, larceny—The defendant very wisely plead guilty. He was accused of entering the house of Charles W. Robb, Esq., on Cliff street, in the Sixth Ward, and stealing a pair of girandoles—Mr. Robb's lady saw the theft, gave an alarm, and her husband gave chase, and arrested Miller himself, and took him before the Alderman. Two indictments were preferred against Miller for the offence, in both of which he plead guilty, and was sentenced to one year imprisonment, in the Penitentiary, on each indictment.

Commonwealth vs. Edward McCaffery; indictment, larceny—Mr. McCaffery was accused, and plead guilty of stealing a bird cage, the property of George Rayser. The Court directed that the prisoner should be remanded.

Commonwealth vs. William Hamilton; indictment, assault and battery, on oath of John Bullough. The assault was of an aggravated character, at least so the prosecutor stated to the Court, after the defendant had plead guilty.—The prisoner was sentenced to pay a fine of $5 and the costs.

Commonwealth vs. Mary Meigle; indictment, assault and battery, on oath of Solomon Jones. The prosecutor alleged that he was hit, while in the tipping house of the husband of the defendant, in Birmingham, by the defendant. The jury returned a verdict of not guilty, and that the prosecutor should pay the costs.

Commonwealth vs. Solomon Jones; indictment, assault and battery, on oath of Mary Meigle. The jury returned a verdict of guilty, but no sentence was pronounced.

THE CONCERT TO-NIGHT.—The Concert of Signorina Balfio Steffenone, takes place this evening, at Masonic Hall. It is not often that such an array of names, celebrated in the musical world, are presented in this city, as is the case this evening at the Concert. Steffenone is well known as the Italian opera in New York and Havana; Madame Amelia Patti Strakosch is known as a vocalist of far more than ordinary talent. The attraction of the evening, we consider, to be the renowned Paul Julien, the violinist. Julien, though but eleven years of age, rivals Ole Bull, on the violin; his success in Europe and in this country has been extraordinary. Maurice Strakosch is the conductor and director of the troupe; his talents as a pianist are admitted by all who have heard him.

The arrangements for the Concert have been made with an anxious desire for the comfort of the audience. The seats are numbered, and with every ticket a certificate will be given the purchaser, bearing a number corresponding with that of the seat selected. Ushers will be in attendance. As the Concert will be the last of the season, we have no doubt but that it will be crowded.

ARRESTED TO THE VICTIMS, YET.—Two young men, of Al, leghany, were caught in a nice scrape, on Sunday. They were up the Allegheny river, on a pleasure excursion, on foot, becoming tired, they hooked the promises of an old gentleman in Collins township, made a raft of a pile of lumber which he had secured in high water, launched their frail bark in the river, and guided its course for the Smoky City. On they had floated for two miles, when they were overtaken by the gentleman whom they had plundered. He appeared on the shore, armed with a rifle, and ordered the boys to take the lumber home. No remonstrance would avail them—there was no other alternative. The two young men jumped in water up to their necks, and towed the raft up to the place of starting. The old gentleman followed along the shore, and whenever the young men lagged, he increased their speed by bringing his rifle to the present. The young men won't take such a trip again—at least not this season.

WASHINGTON MONUMENT.—The stone taken from Braddock's battle-ground, intended to form a block in the Washington Monument, has been finished off, in a beautiful style. The stone is four feet broad, nine and a quarter feet in length, and one foot nine inches thick. The face of the stone is polished in a beautiful style, and on it the inscription, in raised letters, of BRADDOCK'S FIELDS.

The letters are raised half an inch above the surface of the panel in which they are placed. The stone is trimmed around the edges, leaving a raised panel, on which the above inscription is placed. The work on the block was done by Mr. Edmund Wilkins, of this city, and in a style creditable to this gentleman's reputation. The stone was found after considerable labor, over two years having been consumed by James W. Buchanan, Esq., in securing a suitable block in the fields where it now found. It has been finished, and will be sent to Washington at Mr. Buchanan's expense.

RAN OVER BY THE CARS.—A man named Daniel Kennedy a laborer on Henry Hershberger's farm, about five miles below this city, was killed on Sunday morning, by being run over by the fast express train on the Ohio and Pennsylvania railroad. It appears that Kennedy, while in a state of intoxication, laid down alongside of the railroad track near Holmes York house, and there fell into a drunken sleep, with his head and one hand, lying on the track. The cars came along, and the heel of the car catcher, struck the head of the unfortunate man, and carried away one portion of it, including the brains. The wheel of the cars passed over Kennedy's head, and mangled it and his arm. The engineer and officer of the train, were not aware of the occurrence until Sunday morning. Coroner Lowry held an inquest on the body, on Sunday morning, and the jury returned a verdict that Kennedy came to his death, by being run over by the cars, while in a state of intoxication.

SENTENCED.—Judge M'Clure yesterday sentenced the following persons, in the Court of Quarter Sessions.

William Pierce, convicted of burglary, in entering the house of Mr. Francis Herron, was sentenced to five years imprisonment in the Western Penitentiary.

Lyndon Tyler, for larceny, was sentenced to one years imprisonment in the Penitentiary.

John Johns, a lad of eight years of age, was sentenced to the house of refuge, for larceny.

James Miles a colored man plead guilty of larceny, in two indictments was sentenced to one years imprisonment on each indictment.

Charles Noe, acquittal of assault and battery, on the ground of insanity was sentenced to the Lunatic Asylum, in Harrisburg, there to be kept and lodged, as by law provided.

FIRE—HOUSE BURNT.—On Sunday morning, about one o'clock, a fire broke out in the stable belonging to Bon Ton Factory, in an alley near the corner of Federal street and Isabella, immediately in the rear of the Emmet House. The stable was burned to the ground, and with it a valuable dray horse was burned to death. The horse belonged to the proprietor of the mill, and was valued at two hundred dollars. The fire spread to the carpenter shop of James Graham, which was also destroyed, and in it tools belonging to Mr. G., valued at about a hundred dollars. A lot of low frame buildings on Federal street, adjoining the hotel, were damaged, but not destroyed. All the houses burnt and damaged belonged to Mr. M'Neice.

MADAME STEFFENONE'S CONCERT at Buffalo, on Saturday last, was attended by a crowded audience. Seats were secured during the day on Saturday, and in the evening the hall was densely crowded with an array of the beauty and fashion of the Queen City of the Lakes.

It appeared, last night, we were informed, the hall was densely crowded, and the audience went away charmed by the beauty of the singing of Steffenone and Mad. Strakosch, and by Julien's wonderful playing on the violin.

We are afraid Signorina Steffenone will have to postpone her departure for two or three days longer, in order that she may give another concert on Wednesday or Thursday evening. Such is the general desire.

ATTEMPTED SUICIDE.—A gentleman, named Andrew Stewart, residing about four miles from the city, on the Browns ville road, attempted to cut his throat a few days since, in his garden, and was only prevented from accomplishing his object by the efforts of some of his family, who saw him. As it was, he cut his throat severely, and almost fatally, with a razor. Dr. O'Brien attended the wounded man, and expresses hopes of his recovery. Trouble, occasioned by suits in the Courts, is said to be the cause.

THE SOLDIER'S WIFE; or Scenes in Canteen and on the Battle-field—by G. W. M. Reynolds. Sylvia Seabury; or, Yankees in Japan—by Harry Hazel. Gildenfanny & Co., No. 76 Fourth street, have received the above. Also, Lady Leighton; or, The Belle of the Manor—by Mrs. Gore; and the Brother Jonathan for the Fourth of July.

THE THEATRE will close in the course of a few evenings, but will open again on the 4th of July, after which it will remain closed until autumn. During the summer, great improvements will be made to the interior of the house.

ASSAULT AND BATTERY.—Ald. Reinhart yesterday, held Margaret O'Rourk to bail, for threatening Margaret O'Rourk Conlin, and assaulting her.

MR. PROCTER, the prompter, takes a benefit this evening. An industrious actor, such as Mr. P., deserves well of the public.

FALSE PRETENCES.—Jacob Hilger was yesterday committed to jail by the Mayor of Allegheny, charged with obtaining twenty dollars' worth of merchandise under false pretences, from Robert M'Cune. Hilger left as security two trunks, which he afterwards called for in the absence of his creditor. M'Cune obtained them again, and found they were filled with old clothing, worth but little, and not two hundred dollars, as Hilger had stated.

FOSTER'S OPERA HOUSE.—The members of this company made their bow yesterday evening, to a full house, and were warmly received. We have not space to notice the performance fully, but shall take occasion to do so soon. In the meantime we would advise our readers to drop in at Wilkins Hall. They will hear some excellent music and fun singing.

CONNECTICUT BROWN STONE.—This article is brought to this city from the East, and is applied to building purposes in the mansions of our wealthy citizens. The stone-cutters speak highly of its utility, and its susceptibility of polish.

HORSE STEALING.—Mayor Park, of Allegheny, committed, on Saturday evening, a man named Charles Lee, who was charged, on oath of H. Gallaher, with horse stealing.

From the Mayor of Rochester.

ROCHESTER, April 7, 1851.

Mr. Solomon—Sir: Having called at your office, in the Arcade, and purchased two pairs of your Spectacle Glasses, I found them superior to any I had ever used before; they realized more than I could have expected. I have now put them aside, and can see without them, as well as I could when a boy.

NEW YORK, June 13.

The steamer Pacific arrived yesterday afternoon at half-past 2 o'clock.

The Acla arrived out on Sunday evening. The Manchester on the 29th.

The British government refused to both houses of Parliament, to state whether or not the Mediterranean fleet had been ordered to assist Turkey.

An interesting discussion took place in the house of Lords respecting the conduct of Captain Gedeorts or Cuba's share in the slave trade. All the Captains are implicated except Valdes and Concho. Concho is deeply guilty. Spain has been remonstrated with, but has promised an amendment, but the British fleet off Cuba will be augmented.

The La Plata arrived from Vera Cruz, with Arists on board.

There have been considerable arrival of gold from Australia, but no later news.

It is rumored, but the rumor is doubted; that Mr. Crampton will be removed from Washington, to a better mission.

There is nothing of the Slave family, except that they attended the Black Swan's concert, at Stafford House.

There is nothing, whatever, from France.

The Bank will make advances at 3 per cent on handed grain.

Switzerland has ordered out all its men to fight Austria if required.

H. B. Pitt & Son, of Lubec, have failed.

Mitchikoff left Constantinople on the 23d, and arrived at Odessa on the 23d. The Russian army of 100,000 men were concentrating on the Turkish frontier.

The ministers of France, England, Prussia, and Austria, have made a joint attempt to reconcile the parties, but Mitchikoff, and the Porte, of ninety days, on which ever arrived that the former has left.

Egypt for troops, which Abbas Pasha has ready. The Minister of Egypt has sent couriers to every Ottoman province, and called out all the available resources of the empire.

The whereabouts of the French fleet have not been ascertained, and the orders of the British fleet are kept a profound secret. Affairs look critical, but may settle quietly.

Judge Jones presented his credentials to the Viceroy of Egypt.

The U. S. corvette and frigate sailed from Alexandria for Europe.

News from the Cape of Good Hope represent all as quiet. The prospect of the British in Burmah is very black. They had met with a repulse, and the troops were cut off in shiploads.

A steamer was sent to India, express, for more Chinese news, which is highly important. The latest reliable intelligence from Shanghai is to the 28th. Nanking was attacked by the rebels on the 16th. The Imperial Commissioner hired a fleet from the Portuguese to relieve the city by water, which was captured by the rebels. All the ships of war in the port, the French, English and American vessels, who agreed to help the Chinese, and the British and that the Commander, Lilly, and Hermes steamer; the French, the steam frigate Cassini; and the American Commissioner, Marshall undertook to place the Susquehanna frigate at their service. No accounts of the result have yet been received. There was several stories about imperial victories in the interior, but all was disbelieved.

Commodore Perry, in the Mississippi, arrived at Hong Kong on the 9th April, and despatched the Plymouth to Shanghai on the 9th.

The Mississippi's steamer, North Star, arrived at Southampton on the 1st.

One day's later intelligence from Shanghai reports that Nanking has fallen, and that the British commander refuses to permit British merchantmen to go there with arms, stores or ammunition for either party. It was expected that the Americans would also hold out.

Among the passengers of the Pacific are Lewis Cass, Jr., and H. J. Raymond.

COMMERCIAL NEWS.

LIVERPOOL MARKETS.—Cotton: Wright, Gandy & Co. quote cotton throughout the week as inanimate, which is mainly attributable to the warlike attitude of Russia and Turkey, and unfavorable reports from India. The imports of Liverpool for the last three days were 74,000 bales. The Manchester market was firm, with a healthy aspect.

Breadstuffs.—The Grain market was lively; the leading articles have an advancing tendency. Fresh parcels of Wheat Flour are from 1 to 6d higher. The harvest prospects are brightening. Corn is unchanged, and the demand limited.

Provisions.—Pork quotes Philadelphia, Baltimore and Ohio flour 20s 6d@24s 6d. Wheat, mixed red 8s 4d@8s 8d, white 6s 10d@8s 4d.

McElroy quotes long imports of Barnum. Buyers demand concessions; shoulders wanted. Cheese brisk. Lard firm. Pork very dull. Lard and Tallow steady. Rice in good demand. Breadstuffs unlisted. Wheat 2d, and flour 6d dearer.

The sales of cotton for the last three days were 10,000 bales. Orleans fair 6¾; middling 6; Uplands 6¾; and Mobile 5 15-16.

NEW YORK, May 30—No quotable change in cotton, demand active.

CINCINNATI, June 13.

T. Craig was arrested at Newport, Ken., and immediately brought to this city, on a charge of forgeries. Craig was arrested in the act of writing a letter, which at first sight, would easily implicate himself. In his house were found a large trunk, a pair of saddle bags, several baskets full of letters, blank deeds, certificates, &c., implicating a large number of persons in various parts of the Union. Notarial presses and seals were also found, and upon part of the deeds the notarial seal of Hamilton county, had been found.

An examination of the mass of documents were found to bring to light the most bold and scandalous forgeries, and it appears that a widely spread fraudulent real estate business has been carried on for years. Some of the letters were dated back as far as 1840. Some of the letters contained to be copies of letters from members of Congress. The blank certificates were doubtless stolen from the Recorders' offices in Illinois, Ohio and Georgia. There were also instruments for drawing up land warrants and deeds, signed and sealed, requiring only the insertion of names.

Craig is in jail, awaiting his trial.

Fetters Brown & Co., of Uniontown, Penna., was opened by the Postmaster of that place, who did not know the handwriting of that name, and supposed it to be misdirected; this led to the discovery of the frauds.

NEW YORK, June 13.

A large fire occurred at Brooklyn last night. The loss was from $100,000 to $150,000 worth of lumber, belonging to Decker & Sons, on which, there was an insurance of about $50,000. About 24,000 tons of coal, belonging to George M'Machlin, were burned, upon which there was no insurance, and which was valued at $100,000. The ship North Bend was also burned.

THIS IS MARRIED!

DR. LAZZETTI'S JUDICIAL or Preventive Elixir, is prescribed as an effectual restorative in cases of Debility, Impotency, Nervousness, and all irregularities of nature. It is all that it professes to be, viz: A Natural Restorative and Remedy, for those in the married state without offspring, and for the Prevention of Fatal Confusions, Miscarriages, Barrenness, Sterility, Gleet, Weakness of the Genital Organs, Seminal Weakness, Leucorrhœa or Whites. As an invigorating Nervine, it is unequalled. Also, a certain remedy for Incipient Consumption, Indigestion, loss of Muscular Energy, Nervous Irritability, Female Weakness, Debility, &c. It is warranted to please the most fastidious in the delicacy of its taste, and is of countless value to those without offspring.

The Wrapper, and never buy it unless you find on the Government stamp; as it has been extensively counterfeited of late. Avoid all others as you would poison.

WILL YOU READ THE TRUTH!

A MEDICINE must have merit and great merit, to stand the test of public opinion. No art of man can galvanize a worthless article, so as to keep it up as a good medicine. All pretence is false.

A good medicine will live, become popular, and extend its sales year after year, in spite of opposition. The people will find out its value, and the fame of them passes from mouth to mouth, with more rapidity than newspapers can spread it. Strong evidence, testifying to the cure a medicine has made for him, is more satisfactory than any newspaper advertising.

In proof of what we say above, we refer you to HAMPTON'S VEGETABLE TINCTURE, and its effects. Its praise is in the mouths of multitudes. The testimon in our country give their testimony to its wonderful cures. Among them we name Hon. Henry Clay, Hon. Richard M. Johnston, Vice President of the United States, with hundreds of others. Capt. Thomas Dancy—brother to the celebrated physician of the Emperor of France—was cured by it of a disease of every years' standing, after the skill of all the Doctors of Europe and America had failed to cure.

In fact, the rich and the poor, young and old, in every place, in the city and country, find that the same success attends its use.

HAMPTON'S VEGETABLE TINCTURE is purely vegetable, and warranted free from all mineral substances. This Tincture, by its mild, pleasant and safe action on the stomach, liver, kidneys, lungs, and the nervous system, cures Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, Disease of the Urinary Organs, Coughs, Asthma, Bronchial Affections, Consumption, Scrofula, Rising Evil, Worms, Rheumatism, Gout, Neuralgia, St. Vitus' Dance, Fits, Nervous Affections, Quinsey, Fistula, Piles, Bowel Complaints, with all diseases arising from impure blood. As a general and effective VARIOUS DERANGEMENTS of the FEMALE SYSTEM, it seems to have no superior.

From Hon. Jno. H. T. Jerome, Mayor of the City of Baltimore.

MAYOR'S OFFICE, Baltimore, August 25, 1852.
