MON. JAMES ROSS SNOWDEN.

Below we publish the correspondence between a number of our fellow-citizens and the Hon. James Ross Snowden, who has been appointed Director of the U. S. Mint at Philadelphia. It will be seen that a large number of our most highly esteemed citizens, without distinction of party, have tendered to Col. Snowden a public dinner, upon the occasion of his departure from our city to assume the responsible duties of his appointment. The letter of Col. S., declining the honor of a public entertainment, is a beautiful production, and a just and eloquent tribute to the city of Pittsburgh, its intelligent merchants, manufacturers and artisans.

LETTER TO COL. SNOWDEN.

PRINCETON, June 20, 1893. TO THE HON. JAMES ROSS SNOWDEN: Sir—This undersigned, citizens of Pittsburgh and Allegheny County, having learned that it is your intention to leave our city, to assume the responsible duties of your appointment as Director of the United States Mint at Philadelphia, tender you our sincere congratulations on the renewal of your former high position, with honor to yourself and usefulness to the Government. But while we express our wishes for your prosperity, permit us to say, that they are mingled with a deep regret that you have been called away from our city, to assume the duties of your office. We feel that we have lost a valuable citizen, and we feel that we have lost a valuable citizen, and we feel that we have lost a valuable citizen.

With sentiments of the kindest regard, we remain, yours, etc. Robert M. Bidwell, John M. Allen, James H. Smith, Alfred B. McMahon, W. B. McClure, C. H. Haddock, A. W. Loomis, C. O. Loomis, W. B. McClure, Geo. S. Seligman, W. H. Williams, Wm. Lutzner, Jr., Andrew Borke, S. J. Jones, Wm. H. Hamilton, E. M. Stanton, J. M. Campbell, John C. Kelly, F. C. Shuman, Thomas Moffitt.

COL. SNOWDEN'S REPLY.

PRINCETON, June 20, 1893. Hon. Mr. Ross Snowden, Mayor of Pittsburgh, Hon. W. B. McClure, James Dutton, E. M. Stanton, A. B. McMahon, and Henry Strawn, Gentlemen: I have received your kind and complimentary letter, and I am glad to hear that you are so interested in the affairs of your city. I am glad to hear that you are so interested in the affairs of your city. I am glad to hear that you are so interested in the affairs of your city.

OUR COUNTY TICKET.

COMMISSIONER TO CHINA.

From Washington we learn that Hon. Robert J. Walker has accepted the appointment of Commissioner to China. No appointment made by the Executive will give more universal satisfaction throughout the country than that of Mr. Walker. His high character and long experience in the diplomatic service, and his acquaintance with the Chinese people, are all in his favor.

THE NEW YORK CORRESPONDENT.

The New York correspondent of the Philadelphia Ledger says: "A few days since I chronicle the arrest and punishment of three women for plucking flowers from the graves in Greenwood cemetery, and I have now to report the arrest of five more! The offense was committed yesterday. The offenders were fined $5 each."

THE TOLDO, NORSK and CLEVELAND.

The Toldo, Norsk and Cleveland, and Junction Railroad, in Ohio, have been consolidated. At a meeting of the stockholders on Thursday last, at Newark, a vote was taken on the subject, which was unanimous. The union will be effected on the 1st of September.

BLACKWOOD'S MARRIAGE.

Blackwood's Marriage.—The name of this old and popular music has been revived by Giffen and Minter, at their residence in this city. It is a collection of popular songs, and many other interesting articles.

THE BODY OF AN AMERICAN.

There is quite an excitement in Philadelphia in regard to the whereabouts of the body of an American who was recently executed for murder. The remains, in accordance with the desire of young Spring, were placed in charge of the Rev. John Spring, after the execution, but the body was not seen for some time. It is now reported that the body has been found, and is now in the possession of the Rev. John Spring.

ITEMS OF NEWS AND MISCELLANY.

Dr. Edward Scanlan, a druggist in Cincinnati, recently had three teeth upon a gold plate in his mouth on Tuesday night last. While asleep, the plate became loose and Mr. Scanlan swallowed it in a short distance below the palate. When the situation in question caused him to awaken, he could not get it up nor down, and thus situated remained till morning. The anterior portion of the neck became swollen and it was thought that life would be saved, though the patient was in a precarious condition.

RECENT INFORMATION FROM TEXAS.

Recent information from Texas states that the surveying party of Benjamin Huber, on the Indian reservation in Washington, Indiana, only one man having escaped.
