No have been told that some SIXTY THOUSAND DOL-

Also of claims has passed into the Transury without the Superinteedent of the road paying a dollar on them, or pussing through its hands, thus causing a loss to the oper-atives of at least SIY THOUSAND DOLLARS in the shape of discount. There is comething wrong. We complain that hands have been discharged without being paid, and forward to seek employment classwhere-compelling them to forced to seek employment clsewhere-compelling them i forced to seek employment clsewhere-compelling them their time and again for money, and finally having to se their time at a heavy discount, as the only means of gettin their time at a heavy dissidure, is they develop the strike the more. Money in every branch of the government is plenty; the finnes on the new Fortage read are all raid up to the first of Juna. The money with which they are pad was appro-prized at the same time the money was purportisted to pay us. If the appropriation was not large among to pay the argeness of the road, lut it be paid outs far seit will pay and the money fairly illyided, and we will not complain. But we do, and will complain of maring to sized a share on money which was carned and ought to have appropriated.

Such words, and the contrast and ought to have been paid money which was carned and ought to have been paid monthy ago, as long as there is any money appropriated, which is, rought to be; in the treasanty. This is the first time since the construction of the read, that hands have been compelled to adopt this conres to get their wages. The time was when they were paid monthly we are sorry that it is not so now. Wages have advanced on all reads in the country. We have not sided for an ad-vance, we only ask to be paid monthly. We call on our follow citizens to all one in securing our rights. And for-ther yer, we call on the officer against whom the explicit charge is, to ther themselves, and lat the blame rest in the right place. The showe is a strong statement; and we beent.

omTHE STINGS OF CONSCIENCE.—A Calcutte correspondent of the Newburgport Herald states that a man named Dryger had lately died on board a boat, who, on his death-bed, confessed that he was the murderer of Mr. Knor, an American, for which an American boy named to the security by Mr. Daff Phillips. We mention the security was hung, and an accomplies called Tiger Ned. transported, some two years ago. Very, previous to his execution, acknowladged his guilt, but Dwyer says it was he himself who give the fatal blow, and that he had never since known any peace of mind.
