THE RAILROAD SUBSCRIPTIONS.

From what we can learn, we presume the County Commissioners will make the subsprip Chartlers Valley, and the River Railroads, in has the advantage of us. Some years ago he recommended by the early part of this week, as recommended by the Grand Jarors of the County. It is to be hoped that the Commissioners will not refuse the subscriptions, to graffy the editor of the Grand belittle clique, whose obselent tool he is and the little clique, whose obselent tool he is and the little clique, whose obselent tool he is mon-resistent cotemporary of the Journal, to have met agentleman in a gray hat, white facturer, every merchant, every merchant every merchant, every merchant every tion, there cannot be a doubt. Railroads have become absolutely indispensable to the progress and prosperity of community. A few "old hunkors" still linger around us, who think that goods should be wagoned over the mountains, making the trip in three weeks; but ninety-nine hundreds of the people demand Railroads, and will have them. We firmly believe that every Railroad now completed, and in progress of constructhese furious species of music.

One cannot sufficiently deplore the lamentable fate of those unhappy persons whom the necessities of their condition compel to endure all the condesta their conducted in one of the saloons above mentioned, from the commencement of Novem-ber to the last of April. I do not speak of mueical critics. They easily obtain permission to absent themselves from five out of aix concerts, particularly if they have to do with chief composers a little anxious about their health. But the directors, the employees and those inservice! Would you like to know what becomes of them and how they end? I was, the other day, crossing the Boulevard Bonne Nouvelle when I observed one of them warming himself in the sun-served one of them warming himself in the sunshine, on a bench, just beside the Gymnase Dramatique. I went towards him, I took his hand, I called him by name; he looked at me with with a vacanteye, gave a fdictic laugh and murmured in a faint voice: "Ut, re, mi, fo, sol; fa, la, re; ei, mi, sol; si, la, fu, ui, ui," But to draw anything else from him was impossible. An aged woman came up, weeping. It was the good man's wife. She informed me that her husband, usher at the Salle, had obstinately, continued at his post during the entire season, refusing to absent himself once during the whole five months. Hence his idiocy and imbecility. What surprises me is that he has not died of it.

DAN RICE'S HIPPODEOME AND MENAGERIE! A COMBINATION OF TALENT AND INTEREST FOR 1853, Vy URDAY, MONDAY and TUEEDAY, July 1st, 21, 4th and 6th.

The characteristics of this immense establishment are such, that the proprietor deems, it unnecessary to go into hill details, as it has been acknowledged to be superior to any similar one over exhibited in this country. The magnificent Pavillons, the Trappings and Paraphernalla, need only to be sent to be appreciated.

The HIPPODEOME comprises everything beautiful in an equestrian entertainment; while

The MEMASTRIE, has celebrated CHIMESE FAMILY, and the WILD BOY OF CENION, comprises an exhibition not excelled in interest by any in the world.
