It sprained themselves, have used it with the same happy results. Others have used it for rhammatism, pains in the joints and limbs, old sores, cracked or chapped hands, tetters and ringspurms, and all have been HEALED! Go nek that woman who suffered the agonics of a thousand deaths for weeks, with ague-taked breasts, and could get no relief ontil she used the histiang linhment, and she will tell you, with tears of gratitude, that she blesses the day she was induced to try it. These are no imaginary flights of fancy, but facts to which thousands will testify.

133 For wounds, scratches, or sores of any kind on horses, it has no equal. It is warranted to cure splint, ring hone, spayin, wind-galls, awancy, fisting, or poll-evil, if used strictly according to the directions.

A man in Illinois has made a good deal of money by buying lame and crippled horzes for a mere trille, curing them any with the Mustang Linhment, and thu selling them for a good price. He paid fifteen dollars for a horse who had a large fistula on his withers, and in four weeks had him oured, and sold him for $75,00! This is a fact.
