The best of workmen are employed to ornament them, and thus make them in every respect equal to any manufactured in any of the Eastern cities.
Also, a large assortment of Paint, Varnish, Sash, Shoe, Horse, Dusting, Scrubbing, Sweeping and Window Brushes, also, a large assortment of Nailed and Tied Whitewash do.
Also, a fine variety of Tooth Nail and Bristles, flat Varnish, Hair Brushes, &c. &c.
All of which I will sell as low as they can be purchased in any Eastern market. All who doubt the above statement are most respectfully invited to call and judge for themselves.
N. B.—As I have concluded to confine my attention exclusively to the manufacture of Brushes, I feel that I can offer unusual inducements as any manufacturer in the Union, as great inducements as any manufacturer in the Union.

ESOTERIC ANTHROPOLOGY.—A Comprehensive and Confidential Treatise, on the Structure, Functions, Peculiar Attractions, and Perversions, True and False, Physical and Social Conditions, and the most Intimate Relations of Man and Woman; by R. T. Trall, M. D.

(Mary E. Gove Nichols.)

"I recommend this book as containing more of the philosophy of life, and less of the mere rules for living well, than any other, and more practical rules for the enjoyment of health and recovery from disease, than any other work that I have read."
(Dr. Stephens, of Forest City.)

"I look upon it, after a careful perusal, as the most wonderful book ever written. It marks a new era in literature and social life."
(Dr. Dodge, of Oswego.)

"This book contains much that is weighty in fact and sound in philosophy; more that is useful in medical science and effective in medical art; more that is particulative and original than in any one work, in volumes for my many, that has ever graced the Library, Medicale of civilization."
(Alonzo Lewis, of Lynn.)

"My judgment is, that this is not only the best book on the subject on which it treats, but the only true and satisfactory one ever written."
(Dr. Farrar, Portland.)

"Esoteric Anthropology is truly an inspired work; full of the most valuable information, and presented in a lucid, forcible and truthful manner, with a most gratifying sense of its truth and importance. I know of no work in the world like it, or comparable with it."

ESOTERIC ANTHROPOLOGY.—A Comprehensive and Confidential Treatise, on the Structure, Functions, Peculiar Attractions, and Perversions, True and False, Physical and Social Conditions, and the most Intimate Relations of Man and Woman; by R. T. Trall, M. D.

(Mary E. Gove Nichols.)

"I recommend this book as containing more of the philosophy of life, and less of the mere rules for living well, than any other, and more practical rules for the enjoyment of health and recovery from disease, than any other work that I have read."
(Dr. Stephens, of Forest City.)

"I look upon it, after a careful perusal, as the most wonderful book ever written. It marks a new era in literature and social life."
(Dr. Dodge, of Oswego.)

"This book contains much that is weighty in fact and sound in philosophy; more that is useful in medical science and effective in medical art; more that is particulative and original than in any one work, in volumes for my many, that has ever graced the Library, Medicale of civilization."
(Alonzo Lewis, of Lynn.)

"My judgment is, that this is not only the best book on the subject on which it treats, but the only true and satisfactory one ever written."
(Dr. Farrar, Portland.)

"Esoteric Anthropology is truly an inspired work; full of the most valuable information, and presented in a lucid, forcible and truthful manner, with a most gratifying sense of its truth and importance. I know of no work in the world like it, or comparable with it."
