THE PRESIDENT'S TOUR. The trip of the President and his suite to New York last week, was altogether a splendid affair.

The enthusiasm of his reception at all places on his route has never been surpassed, and never equalled since the days of Jackson. Baltimore and Philadolphia seem to have poured out their entire populations, without distinction of party, to welcome the Chief Magistrate of the Republlo. Sa Bordentown, Camden, Burlington, Trenton, Princeton, New Branswick, Rahway, New-
