The note is entitled "Russian Notification to the European Powers"—Circular—and is addressed to "Mr.—, diplomatic agent, &c."—Commences by reminding that his (Nesselrode's) circular of May 30, notified the rupture of Russian diplomatic relations with the Ottoman gov-ernment—that Russia had narrowed its demand o the simple signature of a note, which, except a what particularly concerns the holy places, in what particularly concerns the holy places, did not contain in respect to the general guarantee claimed in favor of the church, anything more than a simple confirmation of what Russia has long possessed—that if this demand was not compiled with within eight days, by the Porte, measures more decisive than simple rupture of relations would be taken; and in making this litimatum, Russia has given particular explanaultimatum, Russia has given particular explana-tions to the great powers—had especially request-ed of France and England not to complicate the difficuties of the situation by their attitude. This two-fold request was unheeded; Turkey refused the ultimatum, and the two maritime powers not having thought fit to defer the con-siderations recommended to their serious atten-

LATEST BY TELEGRAPH TO THE LONDON TIMES OF JULY 12.

From the Danubian principalities we learn that the Divan of Moldavia met at Jassy on the 27th of June. Its first act was to vote an address of devotion to the Crar.

An army of 80,000 Russians are to occupy the principalities, and contracts for their rations have been concluded for nine months.

Advices from Smyrna to the 29th of June state that the captain of the U. S. friggite St. Louis had laid his vessel close to the Austrian brig, on board of which the Hungarian, Colonel Costa, was imprisoned, and declared that he

Several men danced before the Emperor's carriage.

[From the National Gazette, Prussian paper, July 6.]

The corps of Guards and the Russian Grenadiers have entered the camp of Kraxnozelo. The manifesto of the Emperor Nicholas was read to them, in which the war against Turkey is represented as a holy war, in favor of the Greek resident as a holy war, in favor of the Greek resident.

The Bussian Baltic fleet is composed of three divisions—one, under the white flag, is in the Baltic; another, with the red flag, is near Cronstadt; and the third, under the blue flag, is in that port, where all the war steamers are also at anohor.
