The committee appointed to enquire into what variety of wheat was best for sowing in Allegheny county, was called on for a report. . . .

The Chairman not being prepared to report, it was resolved that each member proceed to give his individual experience. Wm. Martin, esq., of Manchester, Mr. M'Cabe of South Fayette township, M'Kelvey, of Wilkins, Coy, of Robinson township, Snodgrass, of Millin, John Young, jr., of Robinson, and Holley, of Penn, gave their experience.

Mr. Kelly reported the progress made in enclosing the ground, and making preparations for the State Fair.

The Board then adjourned until the third Wednesday of September, when they will meet at the Court House.

[This meeting was held on Wednesday last; a proof of the proceedings was sent to our office at six o'clock on Saturday night, by the Secretary of the Board, F. M. Kennedy, Esq. If the proof had been sent us in reasonable time, we would have published the entire proceedings with pleasure.]

The Courts.—The Court of Quarter Sessions was in session on Saturday. Judges M'Clure, Boggs and Adams were present.

A number of motions and arguments were heard, and a considerable amount of Orphans' Court business transacted.

Noah Bee, a lad committed to jail for petty larceny, was admitted to bail, by Judge M'Clure, his father becoming surety for his appearance.

John Johns, another lad, and a very small one, was also released from prison on bail, by Judge M'Clure. The charge against him was larceny; and it is the third or fourth charge of that nature that has been preferred against him.

Commonwealth vs. Ernest Kyre, indictment, selling liquor without a license. The defendant pleaded guilty to selling wine without a license, and in less quantities than a quart, but entered a special plea that the wine he sold, was manufactured by himself, in Allegheny city. The Court overruled the plea, and fined defendant twenty dollars and costs.

In the District Court, the session was occupied in hearing arguments, &c. A number of Sheriff's deeds were acknowledged.

I. O. of O. F.—The Grand Lodge of the United States meets in Philadelphia to-day.

The Times pitches on the following appointments recently made in this District:

P. C. P. Robert B. Bacon, formerly of Mercantile Encampment, No. 67, to be District Deputy Grand Patriarch for Allegheny county, vice Nathan Graham, whose term has expired.

P. G. Henry Kent, of Mechanics Lodge, No. 9, to be District Deputy Grand Master for the county of Allegheny, vice W. H. Gillespie, re-signed.

On the occasion of Mr. Gillespie's resignation of the office of D. D. G. M., preparatory to removing from this city to Ohio, he was presented by the members of his lodge, Mechanics, No. 9, with a magnificent set of regalia. The Telegraph says that "the presentation was made by P. G. Stevenson in an exceedingly neat and pertinent manner; and the gift received by Bro. G. with appropriate acknowledgements and an impressive allusion to his departure from their midst."

Railroad Business.—During the month of August, at the office of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company, in this city, the receipts from passengers alone amounted to $20,913 55. During the month of July the receipts amounted to $18,285 77, and during June to $18,147 32; the receipts of August show an excess over the July receipts of $2,627 78, and over the June receipts of $2,660 23.

In the month just past, there were sold at the office in this city, 528 tickets to Philadelphia, 205 to Baltimore, 220 to Harrisburg, 7,233 to way stations and 161 to New York, which with 897 excursion tickets, makes a total of 9,601 tickets sold during the month. This of course is exclusive of the tickets sold at other offices of the Company, in the West—at Cincinnati, Cleveland, Massillon, Wooster, and many other points.

The American Convention, on Saturday, nominated the following ticket:

Senator—Joseph Wright, Monroe.

Assembly—T. K. Apsden, Pittsburgh; David T. Morris, Allegheny; John White, Shrapsburg; H. B. Hutchison, Manchester; J. C. Henderson, Allegheny.

Treasurer—T. F. Blandford, Baldwin.

Commissioner—V. Short, Manchester.

Auditor—Robert Andrews, Allegheny.

Surveyor—John Sloderd, Allegheny.

Attempted Suicide.—A man named Louis Shopler, attempted to commit suicide on board the steamer Vienna, on Thursday night, by cutting his throat while in a fit of mania a potu. He cut two gashes in his throat from ear to ear, with a knife, but fortunately did not sever the jugular vein. His wounds were dressed by Dr. Irish, after which he was sent to the Hospital.

Committed for Darkus.—Ald. Heisley, of the Sixth Ward, on Saturday, committed to jail a woman named Bridget Creed, in default of a fine and costs, imposed on her for drunk and disorderly conversation. The action was brought by Richard Connell.

County Jail.—During the week, there were forty-five commitments to jail—thirty-six for vagrancy, drunkenness, and disorderly conduct, four for assault and battery and surety of the peace, two for larceny, five for trespass, and one for truver and conversion. The jail contains, at present, seventy-six prisoners.

Libel.—A suit for libel has been instituted by J. G. Backofen, of the German Citizen, against Otto Ehrhart, editor of the Staats Zeitung. The action arises out of some injurious disregatory to Backofen's character, which recently appeared in the paper of which Ehrhart is the editor.

Bitten by a Dog.—A little girl, a daughter of Mrs. Williams, of the Third Ward, Allegheny, was severely bitten by a dog, on Saturday. Proceedings were instituted against the owner of the dog.

Aid to the Sufferers.—The various Odd Fellows' Lodges of this city have resolved to contribute sums ranging from twenty to fifty dollars, to the sufferers by the epidemic, in New Orleans.

Orphans' Sale.—We invite attention to the Orphans' Court Sale to-day, by James O'Brien, the administrator of the estate of John Haffey. The property is desirable, and will, no doubt, bring a good price.

Appointment.—David Wolff has been appointed Constable at the inner depot of the Ohio and Pennsylvania Railroad in Allegheny city.

Route Agent.—John McClelland has been appointed by the Postmaster General, Route Agent on the Cleveland and Pittsburgh Railroad, vice J. A. Cunningham.

Discharged.—The five Germans arrested on Friday for trespassing on the property of Mr. Hamilton, on Brunot's Island, were released on bail, on Saturday.

Applications for Divorce.—On Saturday, no less than four applications to the Court of Common Pleas were made for divorce. The reason is, all the cases, we believe, was desertion on the part of one of the parties.

Admitted to the Bar.—On Saturday, A. M. Brown, Esq., was admitted, on motion of Thos. M. Marshall, to practice law in the several Courts of Allegheny County.

Surety of the Peace.—Esquire Patterson, of Manchester, on Saturday, committed John L. Hoe, who was charged by his wife with surety of the peace.

Number of Cases.—Mayor Park disposed of one hundred and twenty-three cases during the month of August.

Solomons' Spectacles.—Those in want of these articles for the improvement of the sight, should bear in mind that Mr. Solomons still holds forth at his office. His stay in Pittsburgh is limited; and it is therefore necessary to make immediate application, in order to insure your eyes, as well as secure a good pair of glasses. Mr. S. is undoubtedly one of the greatest opticians of the age. He has been in the United States several years, and the success he has met with is unprecedented. All you have to do is to inform Mr. S. the condition your eyes are in, and he will immediately suit you with a pair of glasses. He generally picks up a pair from his large stock the first time to suit the purchaser. He has sold upwards of 2000 pairs during his present stay. Give him a call.

Mr. Solomons will positively leave the city on Saturday, 27th inst.

COMMERCIAL POST.

DAILY REVIEW OF PITTSBURGH MARKET.

OFFICE OF THE DAILY MORNING POST,
Monday, September 5, 1853.

The weather on Saturday was quite wet and unpleasant for out door business; rain commenced falling early in the morning and continued steady throughout the day, which, no doubt, will make plenty of water in our rivers, and improve the business of our city. In the general markets we have little or no change to notice. Receipts of flour and provisions generally, very limited.

FLOUR—The only sales on Saturday, reported to us, were 150 bbls from store at $5,56@5,87 for extra; 20 and 18 bbls from first hands at $5,00 for superfine and extra.

BACON—Sales of 512 pieces, about 10,000 lbs, at 6½@6¾ for shoulders and hams; 10 pieces canvassed hams at 10½; 7000 lbs shoulders at 6¼; 20 pieces sugar cured hams at 11½@12.

SUGAR—Sales of 25 hhds at 5¼.

DRIED APPLES—We note a sale of 68 bushels at 75.
