TO THE LEGAL PROFESSION.

We would remind our friends "learned in the law," that there is no office in Pittsburgh better prepared to print Paper Books, or any other legal documents, than the Post. We have an accomplished corps of job printers, and we invite the patronage of all who have such work to do.

DR. CAROTHERS.

Mrs. Swissheim's opinion of this gentleman will be found in another column. It is pretty severe coming, from a neighbor.

The Gazette thinks Doctor Carothers is in danger of defeat. We think so too. The Gazette thinks Dr. C'Clintock is "dangerous." We think so too. The Gazette thinks that Dr. Carothers, while in the legislature, has given offence to many of our citizens. We think so too. Neighbor, let there be peace between us. We think alike on so many subjects that it is folly to quarrel about trifles. Let us wait at least till the Fair is over. The crowd of strangers that will be in our city will not be much edified by such gems of literature as we have published of late.

But as to the two Doctors. We don't believe you can institute a successful comparison between them. Dr. M'Clintock has been too long and too favorably known in this county, to be damaged in prospects or reputation by the editor of the Gazette. The Doctor is known, respected, admired, for his urbanity, his intelligence, and the fair and gentlemanly manner in which he conducts his share of a political campaign. The votes he has heretofore received are proof sufficient that people trust him. We predict that he will be elected. He has a habit of winning when he runs a political race; and we are strongly disposed to write on to our friend Buehler, at Harrisburg, to have a room ready for him.

We want active men in the Senate. Men who will take the trouble to converse with other members, and make himself agreeable, and therefore useful. We want progressives, not old fogies, there.

As to the charges made by the Gazette against Dr. M'Clintock, we have only to say that they are just what we expected from that source. But we consider them harmless.

M'CLINTOCK vs. CAROTHERS.

Dr. M'Clintock is known to be an unwavering friend of the ten hour law of 1849. Dr. Carothers has proved himself to be its enemy, whatever professions he may make to the contrary. The Gazette, a short time since, attempted a lame apology for Carothers for having labored hard in the Senate in the session of 1851, to procure a modification of the ten hour law, which would have greatly impaired its efficacy.

The Gazette says Thomas Moffit, Esq., carried on to Harrisburgh the Petitions for the virtual repeal of the law. Mr. Moffit is present as we write, and says it is utterly untrue. He says he never carried on any such petitions. Dr. Carothers alone presented petitions for the alteration of the law. Dr. Carothers reported the bill. He made a speech in favor of the alteration. He voted for it in all its stages; and was found acting all the time with the enemies of the ten hour law. Thomas H. Forsyth, our candidate for Canal Commissioner, made a speech against Dr. Carothers' bill, and it was defeated.

These facts can be proved. The proofs are ready for publication, and will soon be laid before the public.

☞ The editor of the Gazette says that the Whig and Anti-Masonic candidates are all temperance men, and that they are committed and pledged to support and sustain the "Maine liquor law."

Now from information we have received from various sources, we are inclined to believe there is some humbug in these pretended pledges of fealty to the Maine liquor law.

Will the editor of the Gazette be pleased to inform us, and the public, what manner of pledges the candidates of his party have given to the temperance men? Are all pledged to support the "Maine liquor law?" If so, are the pledges verbal, or written pledges? If the pledges are in writing, will he be kind enough to publish them, in order that the people may know how much credit is due to those who are promising their influence with the whig court to obtain licenses for certain retailers of liquor.

We do not think it is fair that men should be allowed to carry liquor on one shoulder and water on the other. It is, in our opinion, an attempt to obtain votes by means of false pretences.

Let us hear from you, Mr. Editor.

THE Chronicle is becoming extremely decent for the past few days. Since the editor has become so extremely exemplary in chaste language, perhaps he will translate into plain English the Hebrew Irish which he published in his leading editorial a few weeks since. If he can point out a "fish sheet" that has ever published two words as low, vulgar and obscene, as the words we refer to, we will admit that the Chronicle may rise to the dignity of a Jakey.

CHANGE IN CANAL APPOINTMENTS.—As a matter of general information we publish the subjoined resolution, recently adopted by the Canal Commissioners. The reason for making this change in the time of making appointments to office on the public works is, we understand, founded on the obvious necessity of making the term of service of receiving and disbursing officers correspond with the fiscal year:

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 14, 1853.

Resolved, That in pursuance of a resolution passed [illegible] 10th day of December, 1852, the [illegible]nesday, the 1st day of November [illegible]o consider applications for, [illegible]ments to, the various offices [illegible]oads of the commonwealth [illegible] November 30, 1854.—

OMAS L. WILSON,
Secretary.

EUROPE AND THE UNITED STATES.

The National Intelligencer and New York Herald say that in regard to the Kosta affair, we are likely to encounter not only the protests of Austria, Russia and Prussia, but that England and France have probably entered into the Holy Alliance against us on the perilous demands of American citizenship. We regard the question involved in the Kosta case as one of great importance, and one on which the European and American opinion will differ widely; and it may lead to serious consequences.

The governments of Europe are evidently aroused and alarmed at the bold tone, the progressive spirit, and vast designs of the great republic of the West. Certain it is that the example of our freedom and prosperity is every day weakening the arms of the despots of the old world. And every event that calls the public attention of Europe to our fast-growing prosperity and power, renders the influence of our example more dangerous. The Kosta affair was an event of that kind. It was an interference of a power conscious of its strength, not only in the cause of humanity, but in the cause of a great question of citizenship and right of protection, upon which the governments of Europe will probably never concede, except to force, all that is claimed by the American press and public. We are anxious to see the document which our Secretary of State is preparing on the subject. We will then know what ground our government takes, and that ground must be maintained at all hazards.

The Cuba question is another element that may yet bring this country into collision with the crowned heads of Europe. The English government seems disposed to give law to the world on this subject. It forbids our acquisition of Cuba on any terms, by any means, by purchase or otherwise; and at the same time it evidently covets the possession itself. The present policy of England manifestly aims at a rupture with Spain, and an opportunity to seize on Cuba That would never be allowed by this country. The Monroe doctrine must be maintained, and doubtless will be; and if it lead to a collision, so be it. The struggle between despotism and liberty must come sometime, and we can meet it. The masses of the people of Europe would have no heart, and take no willing part, against us in such a struggle.

NEWS AND COMMENTS.

The New York State Fair at Saratoga, it is said, excels any one heretofore held in that State. Hon. Wm. C. Rives, of Virginia, is to deliver the address.

Favorable accounts are received as to the condition of the crops in Louisania, Texas and other southern States.

A national convention of Universalists met at Columbus, Ohio, on the 21st inst., and delegates were present from nearly all the States of the Union.

A fire occurred at Brooklyn, New York, a few days since, by which $150,000 worth of property was destroyed.

Copper mines of great richness have been discovered in East Tennessee.

On the 20th inst., only 24 deaths of the fever in New Orleans. It is abating in Mobile. On Tuesday last, only 15 deaths from the fever. It still rages on the plantations.

The extensive Print Works at Manchester, N. H., were totally destroyed by fire on Wednesday night last. Loss very heavy, and a large number of operatives were thrown out of employment.

Conspiracies are forming in all parts of Mexico against the government of Santa Anna. His rule will evidently be a short one. The project of a Spanish protectorate seems to be given up. Disaffection pervades the army of 12,000 men on whom Santa Anna relies. This support failing him, his power is at an end.

See what Iowa can do:

"Muscatine," an ox six years old, raised at Muscatine, Iowa, now en route for the World's Fair, is believed to be the largest ox in the United States. He is 6 feet 8 inches high, 17 feet and 4 inches long, girts 10 feet 6 inches, and if fatted, it is believed, would weigh over 4,000 pounds.

PENNSYLVANIA HORTICULTURE.—The Pennsylvania Horticultural Society opened its annual exhibition at Philadelphia, on the 21st instant, and the display of fruits and vegetables was very fine. One gentleman in Massachusetts sent thirty-two different varieties of pears; and a gentleman in the interior of Pennsylvania has furnished sixty-six varieties of apples. Besides, there are elegant specimens of fruit from Pennsylvania, Massachusetts, New York, New Jersey, Ohio, Delaware, Virginia and Georgia. The display of plums is unusually fine. One collection of Coor's golden drop plums, from Huntingdon, Pa., are splendid specimens of this delicious fruit.

State Fair—Robert C. Walker, Esq.

This gentleman is Secretary of the State Agricultural Society, and Chairman of the Committee of Arrangements for the State Fair. We have witnessed the untiring efforts of this gentleman to make all the arrangements complete, and in the best order. He deserves much credit for his exertions; and we hope and believe they will be found to meet all the demands of the occasion.

Oliver P. Shiras, Esq., has also displayed great industry and skill and taste in his share of the work of preparation.

WHIG CANDIDATE FOR SENATE.—Mrs. Swissheim's opinion of Dr. Carothers, is not very flattering. Here it is from Saturday's Visiter:

Dr. Carothers lacks both strength and firmness; his best forensic effort would disgrace a school boy; both in manner and in matter; and he is not capable of giving a prohibitory law that support which would make it an object with any Anti-Slavery man to leave his own ticket. He has not the moral courage nor mental capacity to give efficient aid, in a legislative body, to any movement. Then he is an old hunker of the old hunkers—a Clay and Taylor Whig, and one who has always taken an active part against the Free Soil organization.

WHIG FALSEHOODS REFUTED.

The Harrisburg Union comes to us to-day, filled with long and able documents, which show beyond all truthful contradiction, that the whigs during this campaign are resorting to the most unfounded charges.

One charge against Gov. Bigler is that he has increased the State Debt. The following from the Union will show how false is the charge:

For the purpose of refuting the infamous falsehoods of the Whig press, and the gross, wilful and wanton perversion of facts in the financial speech of Mr. M'Clure, Whig candidate for Auditor General, delivered at Huntington, we addressed a letter to Col. Asa Dimock, Cashier of the Treasury, that has elicited the following full and conclusive answer to all the Whig slanders. By this statement it will be seen that the State debt was $40,332,543 58 at the time Gov. Johnson went out of office; and although $850,000 have since been borrowed to complete the North Branch canal, Gov. Bigler has paid off other debts in the mean time, amounting to $918,910 52, leaving the present $40,263,633 06, being $68,910 52 less than when he came into office! In addition to this he has saved an annual item of interest, in the exchange of bonds, of over twenty thousand dollars, a sum equal to the interest on $400,000 of the public debt.

When Gov. Bigler came into office he found the North Branch canal in progress of completion, a large portion of the new Portage railroad under contract, and some three hundred thousand dollars needed for the relaying and improvement of the Columbia railroad; and it would not have been surprising, under these circumstances, if the debt had been increased. Indeed it is wonderful that it has not been. We have, however, the gratifying fact to announce, that whilst Gov. Bigler has expended $860,000 on the North Branch canal, which is now completed, and worth in the market two and a half millions of dollars, and large amounts have been expended for other new objects, the debt has actually decreased over $68,000!

Who, after this, will believe Whig statements? And who will have sufficient confidence in Mr. M'Clure's financial powers to put him at the head of the Accounting Department of the Commonwealth? If he will make an error of over two millions of dollars in his first financial speech, how many millions could he swamp the State in debt in two years?

This statement of the Cashier of the Treasury shows the finances of the Commonwealth to be in a most prosperous condition, more than sustaining the assertion of Gov. Bigler, in his first message, that as soon as the present works are completed we will be able to pay a million a year to the reduction of State debt. The increased receipts on the North Branch, the saving of expenses on the Portage when completed, and the increased revenue from other sources, will more than realize the estimate of the Governor, above referred to.

Without further comment we invite the attention of all candid men to the careful perusal of the following clear and comprehensive statement of Col. Dimock.

TREASURY DEPARTMENT,
Harrisburg, Sept. 20, 1853.

ISAAC G. M'KINLEY, Esq.

Sir—I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 16th instant, asking me to furnish you with an abstract from the books of the Treasury, showing its operations since the 1st of December, 1851, with a statement exhibiting the amount of the State debt at that date and at the present time; the amount of the new debt created and of old debt paid subsequently to that period; together with an exhibit of the aggregate amount paid towards the construction of new improvements, &c; and informing me that it had been alleged, in certain parts of the State, that the public debt has been increased over five millions of dollars under the present administration.

In compliance with your request, I have proceeded to answer your inquiries as promptly and as fully as the performance of my other duties would permit.

The whole of the Commonwealth on the 1st day of December, 1851, may be summed up as follows:

6 per cent. loans,.....	$2,314,023 51
5 " " "	36,701,484 03
4½ " " "	198,209 00
Unfounded and floating debt, viz:
Relief Notes.....	650,152 00
Certificates for unpaid interest,	130,231 82
Do. unclaimed,	4,448 58
Interest on outstanding certificates,	50,627 31
Damages, balances on contracts, claims for material, &c., on the public works, contracted prior to Dec. 1st, 1851,.....	209,376 50
Total, Dec. 1, 1851,.....	$40,332,543 58
Add to this the amount of loan per act of May 4th, 1852, to complete the North Branch Canal, which is the only part of the loan that has been made since 1850.....	850,000 00
	$41,182,543 58
Deduct payment made since the 1st Dec., 1851, as follows, viz
Operations of the Sinking Fund in stocks redeemed and relief notes cancelled,..... $917,659 59
Interest on outstanding certificates due prior to Dec., 1851, and since paid,..... 40,871 43
For damages, balances on contracts, claims for materials &c., on pub. works, incurred prior to Dec., '51, and since paid, as will appear by the vouchers in the office of the Auditor General,..... 260,376 60
Total payments, ...	918,910 52
Present debt, ...	$40,263,633 06

You will thus perceive that the payments on the debt made since the first of December, 1851, exceed the amount of the North Branch loan the sum of $68,910 52. It should be stated, also, that in addition to the $134,000 received in premiums by the cancellation of the 6 per cent. bonds, there will be an annual saving in the rate of interest of a fraction over $20,000, or a sum equal to the interest on four hundred thousand dollars of the public debt. As the provision for this interest is permanent, without making any exactions from the people, it may be regarded as a practical reduction of the debt.

The annexed statement will show you the precise amount paid for new work under the appropriation bill of 1852:

For relaying the Columbia Rail road,.....	$200,000 00
For new road to avoid the planes on the Allegheny mountains,.....	386,034 90
For the Western Reservoir,.....	53,380 41
For the North Branch,.....	650,000 00
For the double locks on the Delaware Division,.....	60,000 00
Total,.....	$1,348,415 31

I am not able to give you the operations of the Treasury for the current year with sufficient accuracy to be interesting. We have no means, prior to the close of the fiscal year, of obtaining the accounts from the officers on the public works, and in addition, it would require much labor to ascertain the exact balances that are unpaid out of the appropriations. There was no law passed during last session authorizing any permanent loans, except to cancel old bonds; and all the appropriations for new work are to be paid out of the surplus revenues for the years 1853 and 1854, which the Governor and State Treasurer were authorized to anticipate by temporary loans. These will be accounted for in the operations of this year, and, in my opinion, all met by the excess revenues within the time named.

In this statement I have taken no notice of the temporary loan of $98,000 which was outstanding on the 1st of January, 1851, and which has since been paid, nor of the temporary loan of $300,000, made in that month to meet the interest, and which was repaid last summer.

There are a few important and gratifying facts developed by this statement, which will doubtless attract your attention. The first is, that an amount of old debt equal to the North Branch loan has been paid, and $68,910 52 in addition. The second is, that permanent provision has been made for the interest on $400,000 of the public debt besides. The third is, that if there had been no new work in progress of construction, to have absorbed the receipts to the Treasury, the reduction in the debt, since Gov. Bigler came into office, would have exceeded one million three hundred thousand dollars; for all the moneys applied to that purpose would have been used in the extinguishment of the debt.

I have noticed the statements to which you refer, that the public debt had been increased over two millions of dollars within the last 18 or 20 months; but these have been based on an entire misapprehension of the facts. You can rely implicitly on the statements which I have given you above, and I challenge an investigation into their accuracy from any quarter.

Very truly; your obedient servant,
ASA DIMOCK, Cashier.

The alleged forgeries of Mr. Jas. C. Forsyth, says the Tribune, have been traced back as far as 1847, during all of which time they have been artfully covered up by fresh issues of paper. In 1848, he gave a bond, the interest on which he paid with exact punctuality up to his flight. It is also discovered, it is alleged, that he had forged the name of the cashier of the Kingston Bank.

Mr. Gray, of the Baltimore vein at Wilkesbarre, Pa., it is stated, has taken out a column of coal for exhibition at the Crystal Palace, in New York, which measures four feet square and twenty-nine feet in height Several other mines are sending smaller specimens. The citizens of Wilkesbarre have contributed $1,000 to defray the expenses of moving and transporting these specimens of their coal.

NEWS OF OUR OWN STATE.

CUMBERLAND COUNTY.—Fatal Accident.—On Monday morning last, about 6 o'clock, a man named Moony, a resident of Shippensburg, was killed by falling under the wheels of a train of cars, near Newville. Moony was in the employ of the Telegraph company, and at the time of the accident was standing on the platform of a car containing telegraph poles. The car with the poles was not in motion, and was run into by the freight train of cars coming in the same direction The collision knocked him off the platform, and, falling across the track, several cars passed over him, literally grinding him to pieces.

Sudden Death.—On Wednesday evening last, the 14th inst., Mr. JAMES DUNBAR, an aged citizen, and well known as the keeper of the Public Buildings, after having locked up the Court House, started for his home, enjoying his usual health. After supper, he complained of a slight pain in his side, and in a few minutes fell to the floor, and expired almost instantly. He was buried the day following with military honors, by the Carlisle Light Infantry, of which company he was a member, and performed good service during the war of 1812.

Carlisle Garrison.—We learn that an order has been recently received by the officer in command at the Carlisle Garrison, from the War Department, directing that the Garrison be changed from a Dragoon to an Infantry post The distance of the post from the frontiers, where Dragoons are most needed, is the principal reason for the change We are not informed when the new order will be carried into effect.—Carlisle Volunteer.

Yellow Fever Abroad.

The whole number of deaths reported in New Orleans for the 25 hours ending at 6 A. M. on Sunday, Sept. 18, 1853, was 89, of which 56 were of yellow fever, and 5 not stated.

At Vicksburg, on Wednesday morning last, it was estimated that there were two hundred and fifty cases of fever under treatment Most of the citizens had fled the city.

At Grand Gulf, on Wednesday evening, it was said that "up to that time about one half of the residents had been taken down in less than one week The suffering at this place was very great. It was impossible for the few who are in health to attend the sick. There had been thirteen deaths in six days, and when the steamer left three others were dying. There was only one physician in the town, who had to ride day and night and day Most of those who are sick had the fever in its most malignant form. The resident physician, however, was very successful in his treatment of the disease.

At Port Gibson it was very malignant, and most of the citizens had fled The Port Gibson Reveille was published with difficulty, and the editors expected to suspend publication entirely

Natchez was suffering dreadfully. Although but few persons were left in town, there were twenty-two deaths on Wednesday

In Vidalia, opposite Natchez, it was stated that one fifth of the population had died within a very brief period.

Mr. Eiseley (the editor of the Concordia Intelligencer, published in the town,) had lost his wife and four children, and two other children were sick when the boat left. It was impossible to hire or procure any help, as owners of negroes would not permit them to go into the town.

Woodville, Baton Rouge and Bayou Sara were suffering less severely.

The disease had broken out on several plantations on the river. The town of Fayette, in the interior, was said to have it in an epidemic form. —Louisville Corn.

To Work, Democrats!

Work, Democrats, to work! The time is rapidly approaching when every Democrat will be called upon to deposit his vote for the men who have been selected by the Democracy of party as candidates to fill the various State and County offices. But this is not half that is required of the Democracy of old Mother Cumberland. Every township in the county should be organized! There should be no postponement of the matter, until you can but imperfectly effect an organization. Have every thing properly arranged—let every man thoroughly understand his duty, and when necessity requires, perform it with alacrity. Let vigilance, energy, and zeal, characterize your labors.

Let us all ☞ PULL TOGETHER,
☞ WORK TOGETHER, and ☞ VOTE TOGETHER.

"In union there is strength." Without concerted action, we can accomplish nothing. We have a wiley foe to contend with. They leave nothing undone that will accomplish their purposes. Meet them as men—as Democrats. Buckle on your armor and prepare for the fight; and neither faint nor grow weary, until you receive your reward in a glorious victory.

The men of your choice are before you; they deserve your confidence—your united and hearty support. Let us exhort you, then, Democrats, to organize thoroughly, and do so WITHOUT FURTHER DELAY!—Carlisle Volunteer.

Important Announcement.—Opening of the North Branch Canal.

We have just learned that the Canal Commissioners have directed the water to be let into the whole line of the North Branch canal on the 15th day of October next. This is the last link of that great work, commenced nearly twenty years ago, to connect the waters of Chesapeake Bay with the waters of the Northern lakes. Although it has met with many reverses, and a larger portion of it has laid in dissolution and ruin for a long series of years, it has at last been completed in a most substantial manner, and there cannot be a doubt that it will prove one of the most profitable lines belonging to the State. That we do not speak at random on this question will be seen by the statement of a few facts. This canal traverses the richest mineral regions of Pennsylvania. There are inexhaustible beds of iron and coal lying along the line, and it leads into that cold northern region that will consume more coal than any other section of the United States. In our last issue we published a statement showing that the receipts at a single office (Beach Haven) on the old North Branch, a line of only about seventy miles, to be $114,000, up to the first day of September. This will be increased to over $150,000 by the end of the year, being sufficient to pay the interest on three millions of dollars collected at a single office! ! !

Who can doubt the profitableness of the North Branch canal after this?—Harrisburgh Union.

River Items.

The river was slowly receding yesterday, with 4 feet 8 inches water in the canal last evening. During the previous 24 hours the river receded 2 inches. The weather yesterday was clear, and quite cool last night, with some indications of frost.

THE LOSS OF THE FARMER.—We learn from the St. Louis Republican the following additional particulars of the loss of the Farmer at Island 18, Lower Mississippi:

She sunk to her boiler deck on the left side of the Tow Head, directly opposite the Col. Dickinson, which was sunk a few days since on the right side of the Tow Head. The Farmer was bound to New Orleans with a cargo of produce. She was owned in full by Capt. Brandenburg, her commander, and was not insured. She was valued at $11,000.—Louisville Courier, 21st.

☞ Medical Testimony cannot be Controverted.—One of the most startling cases is narrated of Dr. M'Lane's Vermifuge by Dr. John Butler, of Lowell-Trumbull Co., Ohio. The case was that of a young lady who had been sick for eight years, and had consulted a number of physicians, who had treated it as one of Prolapsus Uteri. Dr. Butler was then called in, and for a time believed with his predecessors that it was a case of Prolapsus. He however, was soon forced to the conclusion that his patient was suffering from worms, and after much persuasion prevailed upon her to take two doses of M'Lane's Vermifuge.—This medicine had the effect of removing from her a countless number of the largest size. After she passed them, her health immediately returned. She is since married, and continues to enjoy good health.

Purchasers will be careful to call for Dr. M'Lane's celebrated Vermifuge, and take none else. All other Vermifuges, in comparison, are worthless. Dr. M'Lane's genuine Vermifuge, also his celebrated Liver Pills, can now be had at all respectable Drug Stores in the United States, and from the sole proprietors, FLEMING BROTHERS, Successors to J. Hall & Co., sep22-daw 69 Wood street.

☞ Fall and Winter Clothing, Wholesale and Retail.—A large and splendid stock of Fall and Winter Clothing is now ready for the inspection of those wishing to be fitted out in the mode. Call and see for yourselves.

Country Merchants would find it their interest to call and examine the stock.

Is your Life Insured,

IF NOT, read what some one has written. Among all the contingencies of man to protect his family circle from want, none can be found more simple in its character, noble in its feature, or certain in its results, than LIFE INSURANCE. It is the prop which the dying husband leaves to support the wife of his bosom.

It is the unseen hand of the Provident father reaching forth from the grave, and still nourishing his offspring, and keeping together the family group.
