MORNING POST JOB OFFICE.

We have now employed in our Job Office an unusual number of excellent job printers, and are prepared to execute all orders with neatness unsurpassed, and with a speed that shall not be beat.

We have done a very large amount of printing in our Job Office within the last ten days, but can do still more yet. We will suit all customers as to the speed and accuracy of our work.

THE SATURDAY MORNING POST

Of to-day, excels in interest any weekly paper ever issued in Pittsburgh. The leading article of interest is a full statement of the entries at the State Fair. We then give a full defence of the State Administration, against the barefaced charges that have been brought against it by its enemies. All who read the statement of ASA DUNCAN, cannot fail to be convinced of the purity of our State Government. The balance of the paper is filled with interesting editorials and miscellany, which will interest every reader. It is for sale in the counting room, with or with out wrappers.

THE FAIR.

There seems to be but one opinion as to the entire and splendid success of this exhibition. Those best qualified to judge, are confident that nothing equal to it, in the numbers present, and in the quantity and quality of articles exhibited, has ever been seen in Pennsylvania or Ohio. Some who have attended New York State Fairs, say our's was fully equal to them.

Great credit is due to Mr. R. C. Walker and O. P. Shiras, and others, for the admirable manner in which all the arrangements were made. The whole thing has passed off pleasantly. The weather on Thursday was delightful, and the crowd of people immense. Mr. Walker estimates that at 4 o'clock in the afternoon of Thursday, there were sixty thousand people on the ground. It is known that people in throngs were passing to and from the grounds all day, so that we may, if the above estimate be correct, safely estimate the number on the ground during the entire day, at from eighty to ninety thousand.

One thing about the exhibition, that was in our view its best and most gratifying feature to Pittsburghers, was the splendid display of Pittsburgh manufactures. Never before did we know the degree of skill and taste which Pittsburgh artisans possess. Our city may defy the world in some branches of manufacture; and in almost all branches of the mechanics arts, there is a degree of skill and enterprise that insures success and prosperity.

Exhibitors from abroad, are also, entitled to great credit. Some splendid specimens of live stock were exhibited, that we would be glad to notice more specially did our space permit. The Ohioans were here in large numbers, and their entries made a handsome part of the exhibition.

THE GAZETTE.—DR. CAROTHERS.

The Gazette has perpetrated a very small quibble in relation to the Ten Hour affair of Dr. Carothers. It says Dr. Carothers did not present a petition in the Senate during the session of 1861 in favor of the repeal of the Ten Hour Law, but only in favor of a modification of it.—Ah, Indeed! Well done. And the Post has been showing conclusively that that modification was a virtual repeal of the law. That is just the language we have used, and the editor of the Gazette knows it. But we can go further. We published, three or four days ago, extracts from the records of the Senate, which read that Dr. Carothers presented petitions for the repeal of that law.

And the Gazette would humbug his readers with the insane assertion that the operatives in the mills are themselves in favor of a repeal of the law that protects them; or of such a modification of it as would be equivalent to a repeal, so far as its benefits to laborers are concerned. For shame, neighbor; no sane man will believe any such thing.

And now observe, Mr. Gazette, we never uttered one word as to the course pursued by Dr. Carothers in relation to that law, until some days after you yourself had brought forward the subject, and tried to charge the blame upon a democrat. Even then, we waited some days before saying a word about it. You can say almost anything; but can you deny this? Trusting, as we do, that Dr. Carothers will have to remain home next winter, we have endeavored to treat him with all fairness and candor; and have only referred to his public acts, and to the published opinion of one of his neighbors, as to his fitness for the office he seeks. No candidate has a right to complain of that. It is our duty as a party journalist; and we do it as mildly as we can; for personally, we have no unfriendly feelings towards the Doctor; or towards his champion of the Gazette either.

But, when the editor of the Gazette makes a furious and malignant assault upon us, with the manifest intention of injuring our prosperity, and makes a false charge too, why then look out for a broadside.

THE BEAVER STAR.—We observe that this excellent paper has changed proprietors. Mr. GAITER has retired, and the paper is now conducted by Messrs. CONNELLY & M'GREGOR. The Star has always been a useful and influential paper, and, judging from the first number issued under the auspices of the new editors, we are confident in saying that it will continue to maintain its high reputation.

FINE HORSES.—Among all the horses exhibited at the Fair, we believe that the span exhibited by Mr. J. MORGAN, of Washington county, was the first. In build, size and movements, they were certainly the best nags on the ground. They drew the second premium: they should have had the first, and no mistake.

THE PRACTICAL DRAUGHTSMAN.—We have received from Springer & Townsend, Publishers, New York, Part Third of the above-named work. It is well got up, and would doubtless be a valuable work for mechanics.

For sale at the Book stores.

DEMOCRATIC NOMINATIONS.

O. BARRETT, ESQ.—The democrats of Dauphin county have nominated the above named gentleman as a candidate for the House of Representatives. Mr. Barret is the editor of the Keystone, and would make an excellent member of the House. His intelligence, his acquaintance with public affairs and the interests of the State, and his familiarity with the business of legislation, would render him one of the ablest and most useful members of the legislature. We are glad to hear that there is a fair prospect of his election.

MAJOR JOHN ROWE.—This gentleman was one of the best members of the House of Representatives last winter. He was our next neighbor in the House, and a better neighbor, a better friend, a better man, or a more true and faithful representative, Franklin county never had at Harrisburg. He was elected last year in the whig county of Franklin, and, we are told that will be his fate this year also.

JAMES LOWRY, ESQ.—The people of Tioga county have re-nominated the above named gentleman for the legislature. He is one of the ablest lawyers in the northern part of the State, and an excellent representative. We are glad he is to be a member next winter, because he is opposed to special legislation; and is pledged to devote himself to a much needed reform in legislation.

JAMES R. STRUTHERS, ESQ.—This gentleman is also bound for Harrisburg again next winter. He was one of the democratic leaders last year in the House; and this year, we imagine, he will be Speaker of the House. A more thoroughly self-made man is not to be found. He commenced the practice of the law in Pittsburgh, and afterwards removed to Carbon county, where his ability has won him success and the confidence of the people.

ROBERT B. KNIGHT, ESQ.—This gentleman was one of the Representatives from Philadelphia county last winter, and is re-nominated, and will doubtless be re-elected. He is a true democrat, and one of the purest and ablest, and most faithful representatives that ever the city of Brotherly Love had in the House. We know him well; and know that no public man ever won more thoroughly the confidence and respect and esteem of all who knew him at Harrisburg.

From present appearances and prospects, the next House of Representatives will be one of the ablest and best that has ever been assembled at Harrisburg: and we hope they will commence early in the session a work of reform, by enacting such general laws as will put an end to a great portion of that special legislation which is one of the greatest evils of the times. We must send some democratic members from Allegheny county to help in the work.

COL. PETER CLOVER.—This gentleman is the regularly nominated democratic candidate for the Senate from the Senatorial district composed of Clarion, Armstrong and Indiana counties. A better nomination could not have been made. And we believe that, notwithstanding the factious opposition of a few disorganizers, he will be elected. Col. Clover's experience as a business man, his intelligence, industry and ability, would render him a valuable member of the Senate. We hope to hear of his election by a large majority.

RUSSIA AND TURKEY.

The latest telegraph news indicate that war will be the result of the difficulty between Russia and Turkey. The Emperor has rejected the modification made by the Sultan to terms of settlement, and the Russian troops are advancing. The Turkish army under Omir Pasha, insist on a battle with the Russian army, and we shall probably soon hear of a battle. One blow struck, and the fate of the Turkish empire must be settled by the sword. Should war be the result, as seems inevitable, the next four years will be years memorable for great changes in the condition of the world. Every nation in Europe and Asia is interested in the impending struggle for the possession of Constantinople. It is the central city of Europe and Asia, and in possession of Russia it would speedily become the rival of Paris and London, and in political importance the most commanding city of the Eastern world. With such a splendid prize before him, the CZAR will hardly be restrained by any combinations against him.

The Emperors of Russia and Austria are to have a personal interview at Olmuntz, in Moravia, and the result will doubtless be, either the neutrality of Austria in the war, or an active co-operation with the Russians.

We have predicted from the commencement that war would be the result of the difficulty; and the overthrow of the Turkish empire and Mahommedanism the result of the war. But there is yet doubt.

NEW YORK, ATLANTIC AND PACIFIC RAILROAD.—The first meeting of the New York, Atlantic and Pacific railroad company, was held on Wednesday of last week, at New York. A majority of the Commissioners designated in the charter were not present, but those present proceeded to business, and opened the books of subscription. The capital of the company is one hundred millions. The amount subscribed was $3,500,000, of which ten millions were taken by Robert J. Walker. The company then adjourned for a fortnight.

We say, let Mr. Walker and his New York company have the land, and if they want assistance in the shape of public lands, we would be willing they should have a couple of the western roads have obtained: but let the United States Government remain out of the speculation. —Harrisburg Union.

We have frequently expressed ourselves warmly in favor of government aid to the Pacific railroad. We have said so merely because we believed that such aid would be necessary to the early completion of that great work. We have expressed no opinion as to the mode in which the government should contribute its assistance. But we think the mode suggested in the above extract will do perhaps as well as any that has yet been suggested.

We believe the Federal Government should keep as clear as possible of all speculations; and all partnerships in such undertakings. But it may give some help to a work so great, and so national in its character, as the one proposed; without involving any violation of democratic principles.

A work that will cost a hundred million dollars, must make but tardy progress if it must depend on private capital alone.

We are glad to find Hon. Robert J. Walker heading the movement in behalf of this great project. His name and ability will insure its success. We look upon the success of the undertaking as no longer doubtful.

KENNEDYS' BANK NOTE REVIEW.—We have received the October number of this interesting and useful monthly. Our citizens may rely upon it as a publication which is all that its name imports—a Counterfeit Detector.

KNICKERBOCKER.—The October number is received, and is good as usual. It is a very interesting book. For sale by Miner & Co., and Gildenfenny & Co., Pittsburgh.

ESCAPE OF PRIZE FIGHTERS.—Morrissy, the pugilist, who, it is said, is about to have a prize fight with Yankee Sullivan, was arrested at Cony Island on Monday night, but some of his companions having attacked the officers, he succeeded in releasing himself, and immediately ran out of the house, jumped into a wagon, which was standing near, and drove off at a rapid rate. Yankee Sullivan was also arrested at High Bridge, but he too managed to release himself from the policeman, and escaped.

SERENADE TO CAPTAIN INGRAHAM.—A letter in the Newark Advertiser, dated Genoa, September 2, says:—

"Capt. Ingraham, of the sloop of war St. Louis, now at Spezia, was serenaded, a few nights since, by a large company of Italians in boats, and received a complimentary address from them in commemoration of his conduct at Smyrna. The affair excited the attention of the foreign consuls here, and the local police deemed it prudent to warn the parties to abstain in future from such demonstrations."

Items of News and Miscellany.

Reports on the the new comet from nearly all the principal observatories of Europe have been received. It has been distinctly visible at Dieppe, France, from the sea shore. The astronomer Hind, assigns it a diameter of 3,000 miles, and to its tail a length of four and a half millions, and a breadth of 250,000; distance from the earth sixty-eight millions of miles.

The editor of the New York Mirror states on the authority of one of the counsel in the case, that Mr. and Mrs. Morgan, left for Europe, in a harmonious mood, and that the story of the flogging of the lady was entirely false—that the husband never lifted a finger against his wife: but for the interference of Mr. Hone the scandal would never have been bruited by the newspapers.

Jacob Staigers, who was robbed on board the barque Harvest, at Philadelphia, some time ago, has not yet been found. Every effort has been made by the police, assisted by the different German societies in New York, Baltimore and Philadelphia, to find him, but all in vain. There is no doubt but that the unfortunate man was murdered as well as robbed.

Judge Mason, of Richmond, Va., it is said, has certainly been tendered the mission to France and will probably accept it. He is rapidly recovering from his late illness.

The Columbian, published at Olympia, in this territory, speaks in the most cheering terms of the "present and future" of Washington. The immense additional population has created new wants, particularly of flour and other staple articles.

The aggregate valuation of the real and personal property in Michigan, as fixed by the State Board of Equalization, is $120,862,474—nearly four times as much as in 1851.

A warrant was issued by the U. S. District court, at New York, on Tuesday, on behalf of the Bremen Consul, for the apprehension of two females (deserters) who had shipped on board the Bremen steamer Hans, (formerly the U. States, of New York,) but who deserted from the steamer after its arrival at New York.

RAVAGES OF THE YELLOW FEVER AT GALVESTON, TEXAS.—The following extracts from a private letter, dated Galveston, September 18, received in this city yesterday, shows that the yellow fever is prevailing there to a frightful extent:

"I take a few minutes to write you. I am an old man now, and never in my life before have I witnessed such distress. You scarce turn a corner but you hear cries and lamentation. Most of the clerks on the Strand, young men uncalculated, have been sick, and more than half are dead. Four out of seven of Mill's clerks died.

"Mrs. Wier's married daughter, (Salter's wife,) and the old lady's nephew, both are dead. Major Ware died yesterday. I think over 200 have been taken off since the fever began; the average about 12 a day. Judge Watrons, of the U. S. Court, went about six miles down the island, where he is staying. Mr. Shearer occasionally came up to town, and I hear he is taken.

"Harris Butler and Dr. Bryan, who are among your acquaintances, are now no more to be seen among the accounts in the papers—all for short of the mortality among us. I think there will be 10 or 12 funerals to-day. Not a great many of the old residents have been sick, but mostly unacclimated persons, with which the town was crowded.

"I hear bad reports from Houston. Everything has ceased here except hearses and Doctor's carriages—building, and in short, everything is stopped. The town is truly desolate.

"I had a tight brush myself, but am again able to be up, but exceedingly weak and feeble. Four Doctors have died—three or four of the Priests. Very few corpses are as yet dead; it seems to go light with them."

FURTHER NEWS FROM NEW MEXICO.—The Santa Fe mails arrived at Independence, Mo., on the 19th ult. Among the passengers was Mr. Riggs, of Washington city. Gov. Lane, the American candidate, it was supposed, would be elected to Congress, over Gallegos, who is supported by a few wealthy Mexicans. Major Weightman, it is said, did not receive a single vote in the convention. Mr. Merriwether, the new Governor, is said to be very popular, but it is feared he will have some trouble with the Navajo Indians, who have refused to give up the murderers demanded by Gov. Lane. Trouble is also apprehended with the Eutahs, who are said to be very insolent.

On the night before the mail left, the prisoners confined in jail broke out. Among them were the murderers of John Finnegan, formerly of Cumberland, Md.

The head-quarters of the army are permanently established at Albuquerque, to which point Major Carlton's company of Dragoons are ordered. Col. Brook's company of Artillery are to go near the Mesilla Valley.

News from below is still that a large body of Mexicans are near El Paso; but there is, it is said, no probable ground for the rumor.

A party, consisting of Col. Miles, Maj. Sibley and wife, Capt. Bee, Capt. Steele and wife, and Misses Richardson and Shoemaker, with a train of forty teamsters, left Fort Union on the 3d, for the States, and were passed by the mail on the Upper Cimerone, on the 7th ult. All well. They expect to leave Fort Leavenworth by the 26th.

HOW MATTERS LOOK IN MEXICO.—The Indianola (Texas) Bulletin of the 30th ultimo, has the following:

Santa Anna is prosecuting measures strenuously. "A tax of 12½ cents is imposed," says the Ledger, "on each member of a family, with augmenting rigor, causing much distress and complaints among the poor. An order has likewise been issued for raising an army for frontier defence, to amount to ninety-one thousand men. All men able to bear arms are remorselessly pressed into his service. His designs against the United States are foreshadowed in the late decree of Santa Anna which, rejoins all who have suffered from Indian depredations, to present their claims to the city of Mexico. He intends to demand restitution under the treaty at Guadaloupe Hidalgo. This order has given rise to immense fraud. Many claims, whero-injuries to the amount of $60 have been sustained, are swollen to $1,000.

Another paper has the following:

Santa Anna, it appears, when he left his residence to resume his dictatorship of Mexico, had no great confidence in the stability of his power, for he left his house in Tubaco, with all its furniture, cook-pits; and every thing ready to receive him at a moment's warning. A personal friend of the ex-usurper here thinks nothing will soften him toward the United States but a good round sum, some millions in amount. He thinks the United States will have trouble with him.

SALE OF DALYSFORD, THE SEAT OF WARREN HASTINGS.—The estate of Dalysford, Worcestershire, (Eng.) the seat of the late Warren Hastings, has been bought by Mr. Grisewood, of the London Stock Exchange, for £30,250. The sale of the furniture at the mansion occupied six days, and produced about $4,000. It was purchased by Warren Hastings in 1788 for £11,500, and subsequently he placed improvements upon it costing £40,000. He resided there 24 years after his trial for impeachment, and died in 1812, and was buried there. His wife resided upon the estate until 1833, when she also died, leaving it to her son by her first husband. He died recently, and hence the sale.

THE NEW STEAMBOAT LAW.—Capt. Haldeman, one of the Government Steamboat inspectors at Cincinnati, was last week called upon to give his views in relation to the new Engineers' Association. After reviewing his own experience as an engineer and captain for thirty-two years, and bearing testimony to the practical and successful working of the U. S. law, he stated that in twenty-five years there had been sixty explosions, and a loss of more than 3,000 lives, but that in this, the seventh district, since the enforcement of the late law, not one life had been lost by explosion.

G. V. BROOKE.—A late London paper says that Mr. Brooke, an English tragedian, is now the property of three speculative California gentlemen, to whom he is under an engagement to perform eight hundred nights, which will run over a term of four years, and for which, exclusive of traveling and other expenses, he receives £16,000. During this engagement, he visits London, Liverpool, Manchester, Birmingham, Dublin, New York, Boston, Philadelphia, New Orleans, Mobile, Charleston, Havana, San Francisco, Sacramento, Rio de Janeiro, Valparaiso and Melbourne.

AN EXTENSIVE SUIT.—C. F. Field, an inspector of the London Detective Police, and the original of "Inspector Bucket," of Dickens' Bleak House, it is stated, is now getting up evidence in a property case, (involving £150,000, and dating as far back as the American war,) which will be tried in London in November. The witnesses are from the United States, India, and the West Indies. Field's son is on duty at the Crystal Palace in New York, on the look-out for English rogues.

[We can only present a portion of the premiums awarded at the Fair. The other part we could not obtain, owing to mismanagement in the Journal office, where the copy was sent with the understanding that proof slips were to be sent to the other offices in the city]

PRUSSIAN SUBJECTS.—Under the laws of Prussia, its subjects lose their citizenship by living in a foreign country for ten years, or by discharge upon the subject's request. The marriage of a female Prussian subject with a foreigner is also a forfeiture of citizenship. Subjects living in a foreign country may lose their quality as Prussians by a declaration of the police authority of Prussia, if they do not obey, within the time fixed to them, the express summons for returning to their country. It is said the laws of all the German States are of a similar tenor.

Rev. J. W. Starr died of yellow fever at Mobile on the 20th inst., making the third clergyman who has fallen by the epidemic in that city. At Galveston, Texas, W. T. Mitchell and all his family have died. Drs. Bryan, Ridley and Baum, of the same place, have fallen victims to the epidemic.

Medical Testimony cannot be Controverted.

—One of the most startling cases is narrated of Dr. M'Lane's Vermifuge by Dr. John Dutler, of Lowell Trumbull Co., Ohio. The case was that of a young lady who had been sick for eight years, and had committed a number of physicians, who had treated it as one of Prolapsus Uteri. Dr. Butler was then called in, and for a time believed with his predecessors that it was a case of Prolapsus. He however, was soon forced to the conclusion that his patient was suffering from worms, and after much persuasion, prevailed upon her to take two doses of M'Lane's Vermifuge. This medicine had the effect of removing from her a countless number of the largest size. After she passed them, her health is immediately returned. She is since married, and continues to enjoy good health.

Purchasers will be careful to ask for Dr. M'Lane's celebrated Vermifuge, and take none else. All other Vermifuges, in comparison, are worthless. Dr. M'Lane's genuine Vermifuge, also his celebrated Liver Pills, can now be had at all respectable Drug Stores in the United States, and from the sole proprietors, FLEMING BROTHERS,
Successors to J. Eidd & Co.,

Fall and Winter Clothing, Wholesale and Retail.

—A large and splendid stock of Fall and Winter Clothing is now ready for the inspection of those wishing to be fitted out in the mode. Call and see for yourselves.

Country Merchants would find it to their interest to call and examine the stock.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

NOTICE—The members of the Fireman's Association will meet at the Office of B. Biddle Roberts' Esq., THIS DAY, at 9 o'clock A. M.
By order: THOS. M. LITTLE, Secretary.

RED RIVER RAFT.

THE person to whom the contract was awarded under former advertisements for proposals, having failed to give the bond with sureties as required, proposals for the work are again invited as follows:

Proposals will be received until the 20th day of September next, for the removal of obstructions to the navigation of Red River (Louisiana,) occasioned by the raft, and for keeping the said navigation free from the same for the longest period.

The amount of these proposals united is not to exceed the sum of $100,000.

Each bidder will propose to remove said raft (thoroughly,) and to keep the navigation free from obstruction thereby for a specified period: specifying in his bid the time in which he proposes to complete the removal of the raft, the said time not to be later than the 1st day of June, 1855, and also the number of years, counting from said removal, during which time he binds himself to keep the said navigation free from raft obstructions.

The contractor will be required to give his bond for $20,000, with two good, sureties, each for the sum of $10,000, conditioned for the faithful execution of the contract.

Bidder will transmit, at the same time with his proposals, the names of the persons whom he offers as sureties, and a declaration signed by them that they will sign the bond as sureties as above specified; and also the certificate of a district judge of the United States for the State in which he resides, that said securities are respectable citizens, and that he considers them worth $10,000 over and above all their debts and liabilities. No bid will be entertained unless these conditions shall be complied with.

Terms of Payment.

Of the sum of $100,000 appropriated for the above object, $50,000 shall be paid on the work of removing the raft advances, as follows, to wit: Whenever the contractor shall report that a portion of the raft has been removed, the sums shall be inspected by an officer appointed by the War Department; and if it shall appear that such is the fact, the Department will pay such a proportion of the said sum of $50,000 to the portion removed shall bear to the entire raft, provided no partial payment shall be made for
