

THE CITY POST.

SATURDAY MORNING NOVEMBER 6.

Tar Lure Society Paid.—The Executive Committee of the State Agricultural School, held a meeting at their office in Harrisburg, last week, when it was ascertained that the receipts at the exhibition held in this city, amounted to $17,600—deducting $8,000 paid in expenses, there were still expenses, a balance worth about $8,000, which added to the appropriation of $2,000 by the Legislature, will reach the sum of $15,000. It is contemplated by the officers of the Society, to use this sum for the purpose of establishing an Agricultural School, and application will be made to the Legislature for an Act of Incorporation for the purpose. It is believed by the officers of the Society, that the amount will be established upon a proper basis, could be sustained by the resources of the Society.

DISTRESSING SUCCESSION.—Yesterday morning, a young man named M. Duncan, was found dead in his bed, in the Emery Hotel, in this gentry city. The deceased had committed suicide by taking arsenic. He was engaged as Assistant Engineer on the Conemaugh railroad; for some unexplained reason, he gave up his situation, and came to this city; after remaining idle a short time, he received an appointment on the Ohio and Pennsylvania railroad. He then removed to Allegheny city, where he continued until he was found dead yesterday morning. Mr. Duncan was about twenty-three years of age, and is the son of a highly respectable independent Minister, of Baltimore. The deceased was a married man.

Death of James F. Kerr.—In the Court of Quarter Sessions yesterday morning, on motion of Samuel W. Blair, Esq., seconded by Francis C. Boggs, Esq., District Attorney, the following order was recorded:

Whereas, intelligence has reached this Court, of the death of James F. Kerr, Esq., late a member of the Pittsburgh bar, who received a mortal wound in his office, on Friday evening, November 2d, in the course of his practice; and whereas, it is deemed expedient to make him a posthumous member of the Bar, it is ordered that a copy of the above be transmitted by the Clerk of the Court, to the mother and sisters of the deceased.

By reference to an advertisement, we see that a very valuable piece of City Property will be sold at Auction by our friend, Mr. Williams, this day at 2 o'clock P. M. To prevent confusion with the coming administration of the law, it is necessary for us to do no more than to state that it is unnecessary for us to do any word in its favor. To those who are not (as well as those who are), we say, by all means attend the sale.

DISBURSEMENT.—The American Fire Company of Allegheny, having been disbanded, a resolution was passed, at a meeting of the company, held on Wednesday last, to disband and surrender the horse carriage to the citizens of the Third Ward. The peaceful and orderly members of the company were unwilling to be responsible for the disgruntled conduct of some members of the organization.

Engagements.—Yesterday morning, sixty families arrived in this city, by the Eastern cars, and stopped at the Good Intent Hotel, Liberty street. The party, numbering one hundred and fifty persons, afterwards took passage on the steamer Alice for Lake Erie, in the intention of spending a winter in an ornate, at Fleet Knob, Madison county, Missouri.

A new play, by Charles P. Shars, Esq., will be produced at the Theatre, in a short time. It is a spectacle founded on the fairy story of the Invisible Prince, and is entitled "The Invisible Prince, or the War with Neptune." The play will be given by the New Haven Players, in fine style. S. C. Foster, Esq., we understand, contributes the musical portion of the piece.

We had the pleasure yesterday evening of seeing Robert Quill, Esq., of Washington, D. C. He appears to us a man of correct habit. He takes our weekly Post, and very likely represents us as the boys of the Jeffersonian School.

Masques appear this evening at the Theatre.—The new play, the Jovens, or the Comedy of Constance, and in the moral drama of the Dream of Life. This is the last night of her engagement.

Terrace House.—James Hancy was held to bail yesterday, by Alderman Parkinson, on a charge of keeping a gambling house. The information was made by Edward R. Smith, of Pittsburg.

Violent Crime.—A man named Philip Sebold, was fined five dollars, by the Mayor, yesterday, for violating the city ordinance, in regard to the sale of marketing.

A store of jewelry, cutlery, hardware, watches, clocks, and a superior Damascene twist bowing piece will be sold at McKenna's auction house, this evening at early gas light.
