United States Chacuir Court—Before Hon. R. C. Grier, and Hon. Thomas Itwin.

State Banker Ohio vs. C. M. Blackstock; this was an action on an endorsoment of defendant. After endorsement of defendant, J. Carothers endorsed the same in blank. The Cashier of the State Bank of Ohio then endorsed it, payable to the order of John Boyder. It was admitted that the name of J. Carothers was placed there after protest, and that the special endorsement of the Cashier of the State Bank of Ohio was erased after suit.

The defence relied upon the act of Congress of 1789. The deventh section of this act provides that no District or Circuit Court shall have cognizance of any suit to recover the contents of any promissary note, or other chose in action, in favor of an assignee, unless a suit might have been proceeded in such Court to recover the said contents, if no assignment had been made. The defence also contended that a special endorsement cannot be crased after suit; that to entitle plaintiffs to recover they must true their title through John Bnyder, who is a clitten of the State of Pennsylvania; that the proof dees not correspond or agree with the allegations in the pleadings; and that the declaration does not allege the endorsement of the note to John Snyder, such the recover the variance is fatal. The jury returned a verdict of $317 00 for the plaintiff.

Harvey Gedds et ur et al vs. the Neyetto Manufacturing Company; action of ejectment. Messre. Shaler, Staunton and Hopburn for plaintiffs, and Mr. Patterson, of Union town, and Thomas Williams, Eq., for defence.

This was an action of ejectment to recover possession of the woolen factory belonging to the defendants, in New Haven, Fayette county. The action was brought in default of the payment of the parchase money. On trial. TELEGRAPHIC.

Influenza that can be found in the country, is Dr. Keyror's Pactoral Syrup. We have tried it, and take great pleasure to bearing testimony to its cifficacy. There is no humbur, about it. At this season of the year, when one half our

Boston, Ith November, 1853.

Gentlemen—I have received your favor of the 6th, inviting me to deliver alecture before the Young Mon's Library Association the ensuing winter.

It would afford me great pleasure, if it were in my power, to comply with your request; but the number of applications of this kind made to me is so great, that I have been compelled for many years wholly to excuse myself. The very few cases of apparent exceptions have been under poculiar circumstances which seemed to require a departure from the rule.

I remain, gentlemen, very respectfully, yours, The Brees of Dr. Hanning is now get up in a much improved form, and is worn by hundreds of persons for the cure and prevention of Vecal, Pulmonary, Dyspeptic, Nervous, Spinal, Ernale, Derine and Child-led WEAK-NESSES, such as Prolapsus Uterl, Chronic Diarrhea, Dragging of the Bowels, From the Evening Chronicle.

KRYSEN'S PECTORAL, a friend observes, is the next thing to health itself. Wo may here observe, as we mention no names, that this friend was out on election night, and anxious to hear the news from Maine, turried long on the corners. The news came, but not until he had absorbed sufficient damp to give him the chills. Another friend invited him to take a glass of Scotch ale, which was put up in very black bottles. Our friends thirst was huge, and was only quenched after a number of empty bottles stood before him; a cold in the head was the consequence, which consequence was cured in six hours by using Keyzer's Pectoral. Pectoral Sysup—Our readers are aware that we have not heretofore spoken of anything in the line of medicine; relief that administered by the profession, or that prepared by outsiders. We are not admirers of any kind of drugs; we cannot think of a single article under that head that we have ever considered very pulatable, yet we, like most of you, have been compelled at times to partake of various kinds of nuscous doese. Considerable expenses will be involved by the engagement of such distinguished lecturers, but it is confidently expected that the members of the Institute and the public generally will respond willingly to the call made. The Library is languishing for want of support, and we trust that the labors of the Lecture Committee will be rewarded by a libral support from our citizens. The Association is in a condition that requires netive exertions on the part of its friends to secure its future well being, or to enable it to maintain its present position. and all persons having canadasses sort them for settlement.
