PITTSBURGH: SATURDAY MORNING......NOVEMBER 20

THE EUROPEAN NEWS. The rumor of a battle between the Russian and Turks, on the north bank of the Danube, importance. The war is fairly begun, and will not be stopped by diplomacy while Russia is under the disgrace of even a partial defeat.

The accounts in relation to the deficiency food in England and France, and, in fact, in most of the countries of Europe, are as serious as ever; and the certainty of such a deficiency is fully revealed. Several of the usual Bourges of supply no longer exist. The Sultan has forday after our arrival, not being able to get a boat to take us up to Melbourne, which is seven None is to be exported from Egypt after a certain date, not for distant. Having a considerable elevation from the this Russian war. Want will breed insurrection and perhaps revolution, in many places, whatever the result of negotiations in regard to the Russian and Turkish war. Already a large portion of the mills of England are stopped by strikes of the operatives for increase of wages; and their demands must be acceded to, or more serious difficulties follow. The increase in price of food renders an increase of earnings necessary to subsistence. Seventy thousand operatives have struck in one place.

According to the Washington Union, Great Britain will want, during the coming year, over 20,000,000 quarters of grain more than its own crop. From the facts above stated, it will be seen that nearly the whole of this demand must the mechanic is not successful cratic instincts" of the American people.
