The New York Herald states that there are now probably not less than 50,000 Chinese emigrants in California; and the editor of the Herald congratulates the country upon the prospect letter, requesting me to become a candidate for of our Pacific possessions being rapidly peopled Mayor. I have only time to acknowledge my obligaby the Chinese race. We consider it small cause of congratulation. They are not the race we would like to see spread over the Western side of this continent. The European nations far- two after the election next month. you, however, deem it advisable to present my name to my fellow citizens for the Mayoralty, I nish much better materials for good republicans, zens; and rrom toose nations incy are coming in moh numbers as will soon extend settlements and a thronging population from the Mississippi valley to the shores of the Pasific. The American and European people will never mingle cordially, and on equal terms, with the Chinese. That fact is already manifest in Chinese, though peaceable and industrious, are treated as an inferior race, and industrious, are treated to in-ple a good nominee in a few days, and he will be come of at Larayers Hall this evening. The motive of this Fair is purely charitable.
