Murder in Allegheny

We regret to be called upon to record the occurrence of an affray, in Allegheny city, which has resulted in the loss of human life.

Last evening, about nine o'clock, a young man named Ezekiel Hosack, entered the grocery store of Henry Williams, on the lower part of Robinson street; he was apparently dying from another man, who entered the store immediately after him. The name of the latter person was Stephen Hague.

An altercation had evidently taken place between the two, and Hosack had fled into the store. They had some words in the store, and both started to go out. Hague went out first, and was followed by Hosack. When at the door, the former cried out that he was cut, and asked for help. He fell to the floor, and in a short time expired. He was stabbed by Hosack in the neighborhood of the heart. The body of Hague was conveyed to the residence of his father, in the First Ward of Allegheny city. Hosack surrendered himself, and was taken to the Mayor's office.

Both the young men engaged in the affray, resided in the lower part of Allegheny. Hague lives with his father, who is an old citizen. The deceased was a young man of about 21 years of age, and he had but lately returned from California.

The account given above, we learned from an eye-witness, at a late hour last night. The commencement of the unfortunate affray, we have not learned.

MEETING OF COUNCILS.—Councils met last night in their Chambers, in the City Hall.

Common Council—Mr. Marshall in the Chair.

A number of bills for printing, &c., were appropriately referred.

The resolution in regard to an appropriation of $100, as extra pay to the City Assessor, was taken up. The resolution passed Councils on the last night of meeting, and now came up for final action. The resolution, and an ordinance accompanying it, raising the salary of the Assessor to $300 per annum, instead of $150 as heretofore, was passed by a vote of 17 to 4. Concurred in by Select Council at the last meeting.

The salary of City Solicitor was raised to $500 per annum, instead of $250 as formerly. A discussion took place on this resolution, which was participated in by several gentlemen. This ordinance also passed Select Council, at a former meeting.

Mr. Irwin read in his place an ordinance providing for the more speedy, economical and safe collection of the city taxes, and water rents. The ordinance provided an entirely new plan for the collection of taxes. The ordinance was on motion laid upon the table, with a recommendation to the next Council to refer the ordinance to a select committee.

The report of the Auditing Committee was received, and no motion accepted.

A discussion took place on a motion to publish the report. After a great deal of discussion, it was finally determined to publish in the Gazette, Post, Dispatch, Germania, Courier and Staats Zeitung, providing each paper would publish it three times for fifty dollars.

Mr. Irwin presented a resolution returning the thanks of Councils to Thomas St. Marshall, Esq., for the able and impartial manner in which he had presided over the deliberations of Councils during the past year. Mr. Irwin accompanied his resolution by a few remarks.

Gen. Moorhead also complimented Mr. Marshall in a handsome manner.

The resolution was unanimously adopted.

Mr. Marshall eloquently replied to the remarks of the gentlemen who had spoken. He returned his heart-felt thanks to all the members of Council, and wished them in parting success here and hereafter. Mr. M. was very happy in his remarks, and was enthusiastically applauded when he concluded.

The thanks of Councils, on motion, were returned to the Clerk and Messenger.

On motion of Col. Scott, the action of Council, in regard to the Messenger of Select Council, was re-considered; and on motion of Select Council, giving their messenger $50, was not concurred in.—Ayes 20, nays 12.

The thanks of Council were, on motion of Mr. Bowley, returned to Messrs. Schoyer, O'Neill and Mills, the reporters of the Gazette, Dispatch and Post, for their correct reports of the proceedings of Councils, during the year past.

[MIRT.—Thanks, gentlemen of the Council; but we have no doubt the reporters would have been far better satisfied if you had thrown away on them one of the fifty dollar bills you dispensed so liberally last night. We may add for the information of the "dear people," that the "thanks" rendered the reporters for their "valuable services," passed with as great unanimity as the resolutions making donations of their money. This clearly demonstrates that the Councils are as liberal with their thanks as they are with the people's money. But thanks, Messieurs Councilmen, thanks.]

After transacting some business from the Select Council, the Council adjourned.

Select Council—Mr. Shipton in the Chair.

The reports of the water, and the auditing committees were presented and accepted.

An ordinance was presented granting the Ohio and Pennsylvania Railroad permission to cross to this city, and the right to lay a single track down either St. Clair or Hand street, or a line on either side of the aqueduct of Pennsylvania canal, to Liberty street, and the right of way down Liberty street. The ordinance was passed in Select Council in Common Council various amendments were offered, and opted down. The ordinance as it came from Select Council was finally passed by a vote of 16 to 6.

An ordinance in regard to the rent of stalls, was presented and referred to the committee on ordinances. Action concurred in by Common Council.

The resolution of thanks to the Reporters was also passed in the Select Council.

The Select Council did not agree in the amendment made by Common Council, in naming the papers to publish the report of the Auditing committee. A committee of conference was appointed; they reported in favor of publishing the report in the Post, Gazette, Journal, American, Dispatch, German Courier, Chronicle, and Staats Zeitung. Adopted in Select Council.

In Common Council laid upon the table.

QUARTER SESSIONS.—Before Hon. William B. McClure, President Judge; Gabriel Adams and Wm. Boggs, Esq'rs., Associate Judges.

In the case of Commonwealth vs. Louisa Kuhn, the jury returned a verdict of not guilty, on the ground of insanity: they recommended the defendant to the care of the proper officers of the township.

Commonwealth vs. John Kemp: indictment, assault and battery.—The prosecutrix in this case, was Mary Atkins. A verdict of guilty was returned. No sentence.

Commonwealth vs. Margaret Wilson: indictment, larceny. The defendant was charged with stealing from a man named Seth Stoddard, a five-dollar gold piece. She plead guilty, and was sentenced by the Court, to return the money stolen, and undergo an imprisonment in the county jail for two months.

Commonwealth vs. Wm. McAdams: indictment, larceny. This case was tried at the October term, 1853—the jury returned a verdict of guilty, but the Court granted the defendant a new trial. McAdams, in the early part of 1853, was married to a young girl named Catharine McIlhago. After the marriage it was discovered, by the defendant's own admissions, that he had a wife in Ireland, from whom he had been separated for seven years.

THE DUQUESNE GREYS.—This fine military company paraded yesterday, under the command of Capt. Campbell. They presented a fine appearance. Lieut. Roberts looked the soldier every inch.

Mrs. Rynar, we suppose, will sustain the character of Belvidera. A new drama, called the Rag Picker of Paris, will also be presented.

SUPPER.—The employees of the Excelsior Omnibus Company were provided with a sumptuous entertainment at the Good Intent Hotel, on Saturday evening last. Upwards of fifty sat down, and it is unnecessary to say all hands were delighted.

COURT NEWS.

QUARTER SESSIONS.—Before Hon. William B. McClure, President Judge, and Gabriel Adams and Wm. Boggs, Esq'rs., Associates.

Commonwealth vs. Daniel Nugent; indictment, keeping a gambling house.—The defendant, was charged with keeping a gambling house in the Ninth Ward. A number of women, residing in the neighborhood, were called as witnesses for the prosecution; they proved that the defendant kept a room in his premises where gambling was permitted. A verdict of guilty was returned, and the Court fined Nugent one hundred dollars and costs. Nugent was committed to jail in default of his fine.

Commonwealth vs. Louisa Kuhlil; indictment, murder, larceny. The defendant, a young girl apparently fourteen or fifteen years of age, was in the employ of Mrs. Craig, a lady residing on the Noblestown Plank Road, six miles from the city, in Lower St. Clair township. On the 1st of December, Mrs. Craig came to this city on a visit; in her absence it is charged the defendant stole a number of articles of dress, and a considerable sum of money. On trial.

DISTRICT COURT.—Before Hon. Moses Hampton, President Judge.

Jacob Delapriest vs. Curtis Curds; No. 70 January term, 1853. C. Shaler & Co. for plaintiff, and Mellon and Negley for defendant.

This is an action brought against the defendant, for illegal misconduct in office. The defendant, while Sheriff of this county, returned a summons, injunction nulla, and Fieri Facias Shaler's sale, to several on plaintiff, by reason whereof judgment was obtained, and property belonging to him, worth $7,000, was sold for $100. The plaintiff alleges that the return made by the Sheriff was false—that no notice was served upon him. On trial.

INQUEST ARRANGED.—On Saturday evening, two officers of Mayor Park's police, arrested, at the depot of the Ohio and Pennsylvania Railroad, in Federal street, Allegheny City, a man named Patrick Hickey, on a charge of having assaulted Miss Rose Sandusky, on Sandusky street, on Tuesday evening last. On an examination, Hickey was lodged in the tombs, and on Sunday committed to jail for a further hearing.

Hickey resides in Rochester, Beaver county. The circumstances which actuated him to commit the assault, it is said, were that her father refused to consent to their marriage.

SUDDEN DEATH.—Mrs. Hannah Peter Hart was committed to jail, this morning, on a charge of committing an outrage on the body of a young girl in the Eighth Ward. Alderman Lewis committed Hart to jail—the information, including that of the offence, was made by Peter Toris, before Ald. Duff.

A GRAND RALLY of the Citizens of the Seventh Ward was held on Monday evening, Jan. 9th. The meeting was organized by calling Joseph Feltwell to the Chair, and John Irwin, Secretary.

The Chairman stated the object of the meeting in a brief and eloquent speech, after which it was moved that a committee consisting of five be appointed to draft resolutions expressive of the sense of this meeting, in regard to the various candidates presented to the suffrages of the people.

During the absence of the Committee, the meeting was addressed by Messrs. Moore, Ward, Lynch, Feltwell and others.

NEWS FOR RIVER MEN.

☞ There is seven feet water in the Monongahela, and rising. The river at Brownsville rose one foot since yesterday morning. Our river men are now sanguine of navigation opening in a few days. The ice in the Allegheny river above, has broke, and is now full of running ice; river raising.

☞ The people of Cincinnati and Louisville are again apprehending much suffering from the small supply and high price of coal at those places. The river continues frozen here, and the water very low, without any present signs of such a change as will enable the coal boats to leave for the markets.

A January rise in the river, however, hardly ever fails; and there is time enough yet within the month for a flood.

So long a season of low water has seldom been known in our rivers. Ever since early in June, we believe, the packets and large steamers have been unable to make but one or two trips from this port. A very large and active spring trade may be expected, should there be water sufficient.

The steamboat business on the Western waters will doubtless continue as active and prosperous as ever. The small number of accidents, lately occurring on the Western rivers, is encouraging to capitalists and owners of boats; and the rapid and vast increase of agricultural production, population and business in the West, will fully employ all the steamboats and railroads of the West for years to come. New and populous States are rapidly taking the place of the vast, wilderness and prairies of the Great West, and new and numerous cities are springing up all along the shores of its rivers. Every industrial interest and enterprise cannot fail to grow and fruitful region.

NAVIGATION.—Ice is running in the river opposite, but not heavy. A rise of a few inches has taken place, indicating a coup below. The Alton packets, St. Paul and Brunette, are making daily trips, the latter, however, without insurance, the city offices declining the risk. No arrivals from below.—St. Louis Dem.

COAL BOATS SUNK.—Two coal boats were sunk by the ice yesterday, in the bend of the river, above the ferry landing. One of them belonged to a Mr. Packer, and contained 12,000 bushels Pittsburgh coal. The other boat belonged to the Belle Mountain Coal Company, and was about half loaded.—Louisville Dem.

THE HOG MARKET.—PRICES—FAILURE.—The slaughtering around the Falls continues, with, however, but light receipts, and the number killed up to last evening is about 390,000. The season has almost closed on this side of the river, but at Jeffersonville and New Albany it will continue another week. Prices were firm yesterday morning, but rather dull in the evening.

It was rumored yesterday, that one of the most extensive packers and ham curers at Cincinnati had failed, which created some little stir here, and several parties were actively engaged in attaching property and pork that had been purchased here by that firm. They had purchased about 50,000 pieces of meat, chiefly hams, a considerable portion of which was at the wharf boat awaiting shipment to Cincinnati.

The market in Cincinnati yesterday, as we see by our despatches, had gone materially declined on all descriptions of pork, with more sellers than buyers.—Louisville Courier, Jan. 6.

WRECK OF THE STEAMER SAN FRANCISCO, WITH THE THIRD REGIMENT OF U. S. TROOPS—PERILOUS CONDITION OF HER PASSENGERS.—A private despatch from Washington informs us that the news has been received there of the wreck of the steamer San Francisco, with the Third Regiment of U. S. Troops, consisting of eight hundred persons, on board. The steamer was seen in a perilous condition on the 24th ultimo, and it is feared that succor would arrive too late. The Government has chartered a steamer and sent it to the relief of the San Francisco.—Harrisburg Union.

MOUNT VERNON.—It is stated that there are twenty-five hundred Virginians ready to subscribe $100 each, to purchase Mount Vernon, and to convert it into an agricultural farm.
