Bweitzer for the defonce. An attempt was made by the counsel for the defonce, be-fore the prisoners were arraigned, to procure for them a separate trial. The motion was made by Mr. Jones; counsel for Clegg. The District Attorney opposed the motion. Judge McClure decided that the prisoners should be tried

Judge McLiure derived that the provision of the in-together. Olege and Horenbaugh were then arriigued, and the in-dictmant read to them. It contained three counts-the first charged them both joinity as principals in the lenge as accessory, and the third charged Glege as principal and Horenbaugh as accessory. The indictment charged them with inficting on William Henry Carlon, on the 15th of December last, a wound with a dirk knike, in the stomach, four inches in breath and the same in depth, from which he languished until the 18th of the same month, when he died.

AFTERNOON SESSION. After four jurors had been empannelled, James, Ward, eturned on the panel as a juryman, was called, when it possed that Mr. Ward was not a citizen of the United retor

States. Col. Black, for the defence, moved that the array be quash-d on that ground. Air. Roberts contended that the jury-nan had been challenged for cause, by the Commonwealth. Unor the question had been argued at considerable length; The Court overruled the motion. The time occupied in empanuelling the jury was over hree hours. Mr. Stewart opened for the Commonwealth. He read va-
