There are several good routes to be given out to the carriers of our Evening Post, where money can be made by industrious carriers, who are willing to take hold of it and make a business of it. The Fifth ward is not yet supplied with a regular carrier, and can be made very profit-

Our circulation is already large: and we are determined to have the whole of the two cities supplied, and half the neighboring Boroughs and Townships. We send a large number to Beaver county, and other distant places. We can truly say that our success, thus far, is fully equal to our expectations; but we shall not be satisfied till our sale is five thousand daily. It can be done; and we believe will be done, as soon as Strike at the pockets of the illiberal and narrow good carriers in sufficient numbers are found. the city of Pittsburgh. That extension, and the connection of that road with the Central road, will have to be provided for soon, or travel and trade will seek other routes between the East and West. The Pennavivania roads have now three great rivals to the Western road through Canada to Detroit . the Lake Shore road; and the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad. And nothing but the most convenient and expeditious conveyance of freight and passengers by our roads will win a full share of that commerce. A break between Allegheny City and Pittsburgh, that delays travelers some two hours, and subjects all freight and travel to considerable unnecessary expense, is bad policy, and will doubtless be injurious to the interests of Hilsite is evidence that must satisfy every mind that can be administered with the certainty of expelling worms.

I hereby certify, that a child of mine, aged three years, had been very ill for a month with, gain in the chest, gen eral weakness, and loss of appetite. I was advised to try B. A. Fahnestock's Vermifuge, and accordingly, bought, a bottle from M. Naylor, Druggist, Granville street. Having administered a portion of it, he passed, within twentyfour hours, Two Hundred and Forty-two Worms, from six to twelves inches in length. The child, immediately after this, had its appetite restored, and soon enjoyed perfect health. Another child, seven years old, who had been more or less sick from his birth, took the remainder of the bottle, which caused him to pass One Hundred and Sixytwo Worms. From that time to the present, lish health has been perfectly good, and he has thrived as well as any child could,
