

DAILY MORNING POST.

SATURDAY MORNING: JANUARY 28.

JOB PRINTING.

We have one of the best Job Printing Offices in the city, and we would respectfully ask merchants and all others who want Cards, Circulars, Bills of Lading, Bill Heads, Blank Checks, Handbills, &c., to call and see us. All our Job Type is of the most modern pattern. Our prices are not full to please all our customers. Our workmen are perfect masters of their business, and will labor handidly to please all who will favor us with an order.

TIME SATURDAY MORNING POST.

is now for sale in the counting room. It contains the full particulars of the loss of the San Francisco, with numerous other marine disasters; full reports of the foreign news; Congressional proceedings; the speech of Dr. McClellan in the State Senate, on the removal of the militia; the proceedings of the meeting in regard to Erie; a highly interesting report of the marine and literary money articles; Editorials on all subjects; items of news from all quarters; Poetry; Tales, &c., &c.

Single copies five cents, with or without news and events from all quarters.

Up to $500 has been subscribed to extend the Post to Baltimore.

Forces Allen, President of the St. Andrews Society, New Orleans, has abandoned after committing defections to the amount of $40,000.

Thomas Motley and William Blackledge, who cruelly murdered a slave sometime since in South Carolina, have been sentenced to be hung on the 31st of March.

The notorious Motley papers are busily discussing the affairs involved in the Erie war.

Mr. Gobin, from Mexico, with the treat in his pocket, has arrived in Washington.

The obnoxious Johnson, who persisted in "standing out all night," was badly frost bitten.

Wm. Abbott, of Boston, has given $2,000 for the purpose of sending eight slaves, the property of Montgomery Bell, of Tennessee, to Liberia.

The Abolitionists indicated 80 degrees at New Orleans, on the 15th instant.

A steam fire engine is in the course of construction at Philadelphia. We believe there is one in successful use at Cincinnati.

Mr. Stanley, one of Mr. Stevens's Exploring party, says that the distance from Mississippi to the Pacific is 1,800 miles; that the country is rich and level, and the grade forty feet to the mile through Cadote's Pass.

The surest way to prevail on a young couple to marry is to oppose them. Tell them you would rather see them buried than married, and two months afterwards the boy will pass twice a day in a wagon.

A Jewish wedding will shortly be started in Cincinnati.

The bank note circulation of Great Britain amounts to $189,450,000.

The total value of dutiable goods imported into Montreal last year was $18,024,514, against $7,774, in 1852.

Gov. Price, of New Jersey, in his inaugural address, recommends a new geological survey of the State.

The new Post-office tariff of Cuba imposes a postage of 12 cents per ounce upon newspapers.

A married gentleman present at a trapping circle, being informed that the power depended wholly on the hill, begged that his wife might try it, as he had never seen anything like it before.

Poeky Bojangles is lecturing in Philadelphia. Nearly all the Philadelphians are advocating the repeal of the mint law.

The New Yorkers, it is said, intend, as soon as they can get over their modesty, to claim the removal of the seat of the Federal government to New York city. It is thought also that next winter they will petition Congress to extend the Ohio river to New York city; or "dry it up" between Pittsburgh and Wheeling.

On the first Monday of February, the cars, we are told, will be running through the tunnel of the Pennsylvania Railroad.

An amendment to the Constitution has been introduced into the House of Representatives of this State, by Mr. Bigelow of Allegheny county—prohibiting omnibus bills—restricting the pardoning power—and providing for the election of Representatives by single election districts. The first proposition we like.

The second we like. The third we have some objections to.

A man went up in a balloon from Madrid, a short time since, came down two hours after, frozen to death.
