150 Cheap Lots For Sale,

Pittaburgh, March 13, 1854.

IN ROCHESTEI, BEAVER CO., Pa., at less than half price. Fifty of these Lots will be rold at $50 cach, and 100 lots at $100 cach, for the benefit of mechanics and others, who cannot spare a second $50, or a second $1.00 though deserving a good building lot apiece, just as much as a man worth handreds or thousands. Those who have no money may have lots for their labor, at liberal prices—paying $5 or $10 a month, in labor, and receiving a warranty deed the moment the lot is thus paid for. The title to these grounds is perfect, for which reference is made to Thomas Canningham, Esq., of Pittaburgh.

Pittaburgh. deed the moment the lot is thus paid for. The title to these grounds is perfect, for which reforence is made to Thomas Cunningham, Esq., of Extrery, and N. P. Fetterman, Esq., of Pittsburgh.

A very great amount of labor will be required in this neighborhood, not only by the subscriber and those whom he represents, but by the Beaver Manufacturing Company, by the Ohio and Pennsylvania Raliroad Company, and by the Esver County Renton Iron Company, who expect to erect 20 furnaces in and about the Beaver Mingres the present season. With regard to this process of making tron, reference is respectfully made to Messre, Krismer & Rahm, J. K. Moorhead, J. W. Hailman, Lyon, Shorb & Co., W. Dewees Wood, J. R. Hendrickston, Wm. Whigham, and James H. Crane, Pittsburgh.

Contracts, for grading, excavating, quarrying, mining, stone work, brick work, carpentery, and other mechanical labor, may now be entered into by those who apply.

The above mentioned lots are 40 feet front by 125 feet deep, each containing 5000 square feet, just double the quantity in common sized city lots, of 25 by 100. The price, it will be seen, is only one cent a foot, or a dollar for 10 feet square. Here a man can have land of his boots. Who will not own real estate, at such prices?

The property now offered is worth double the price charged for it, and will be so acknowledged and r. puted, by all, the moment it passes into other hands.

Many building lots are already bespoken, which will be announced, and dopen the prices, from the 8th to the 16th inst only; after which, a public safe upon the premises will be announced, and other will bring from $100 to $500.

Those who pay cash will deposit it with George Speyrer, Esq., of Rochester, or with Messra. Kramer & Rahm, of Pittsburgh. The deeds will be made out, acknowledged and deposited in the same hands, to be delivered on lifting the monest, the same hands, to be delivered on lifting the mones.

the money.

Maps of the Borough of Rochester will be found at various public places, and amalier plates of the lots will be freely given to all who apply.

The above proposition will be open to the 15th inst, only.
