THE GAZETTE. The Gazelle and the Post sgree for once. Both think it would be very improper for Judge Pol-. lock to decline the race for Governor, now that he has formally accepted the nomination. It would show an utter want of confidence of success, and would discourage the whole party. That is what the Gazette and Post both said on Tuesday. The Gazette is willing to form a Northern Anti-Slavery party at once, and let the Whig party "go to grass." In other words, it is willing to desert its colors in the day of adversity. That is not quite the true spirit. The party that has supported the Gazette so long, should not be desarted by it so soon. Stand by your colors, ists for American securities is reported, but no neighbor, firm and undaunted in the evening of large sales are mentioned. defeat, as in the morning of victory. But while the Post and Gazette agree as to the impropriety of Judge Pollock's declining the race, the latter paper and the Journal are reading each other very edifying lectures on party tactics. The Journal is willing to do anything to defeat the Domocrats. The Gazette seems to think that one more defeat of the Whigs will make them more willing to coalesce with the abolitionists. The difference between the editors of those papers is very apparent. The editor of the Journal would about sa soon join the Democrats as the Aholitionists. The editor of the Gazette would join the latter at once, and form another party, with Wm. H. Seward at its head, and Horace Greely for its oracle.

But in one thing both our neighbors agree; and that is, that the days of the Whig party are numbered, and almost ended. We expect a large accession to the Democratic ranks, when it is finally and formally dissolved SHIPWRECKS.

The late increase in prices of breadstuffs has produced a good deal of activity in the trade here. The cause of the late sudden and large rise in prices it would be difficult to state. It followed almost immediately upon the declaration of war by the Western Powers against Bussin. Yet that declaration had been long expected, and th EDITOR OF POST :-- Private calander was call-
