DAILY MORNING POST.

SATURDAY MORNING.....MAY 6

In consequence of the recent abuse of the Franking privilege, the Post-Master General has issued instructions to all the officers in the Department, special agents, &c., to strictly enforce the section of the act of 1825 relating to Franking. By said act no person can frank letters not written by himself, or at his order, under a penalty of $10; and any person receiving a letter under a frank, not entitled to receive letters free, is obliged to give notice at the office where said letter is received, in order that postage may be charged.
