CORONER'S INQUEST.—In yesterday's issue we gave an account of a man named John Smith committing suicide. The following are the principal circumstances of the case:—Mr. Smith resided about four miles from the city, in Clinton, with one of his sons. He was about seventy years of age; was a soldier in the war of 1812, and has been much addicted to drinking. On Saturday last he left home for the purpose, it is supposed, of getting a supply of liquor, taking his bottle with him. On his return home in the afternoon, he procured some, after many attempts, and continued on his way. In the evening, he was observed lying on the road side, but no attention was paid to him as it was thought he was sleeping. On Sunday he was discovered in the same place, the sun beating down on him, and the bottle lying along side empty. Persons drinking and the opposite beat of the sun on Sunday, caused his melancholy death.

SERIOUS ACCIDENT.—An Irishman named Molloy, who was engaged in putting up signs in a wall, on a staging on Smithfield street, opposite the Custom House, yesterday afternoon, missed his balance and fell to the bottom, a distance of twenty-five feet. He was in the act of looking down into the well at the time, and consequently fell on his head, fracturing his skull, and otherwise injuring himself seriously. He was taken off to hospitable conditions, and conveyed to Dr. Walker's office, where his injuries were attended to.

BURGLAR'S ABOUT.—Our city must be infested, at the present time, with a regularly organized gang of burglars, as we have heard lately of a great many instances where attempts at house breaking have been made. No less than five or six houses, in the Fifth Ward, have been entered, or entrances attempted, within the last week or two, without similar attempts in other portions of the city, and in Allegheny. Our house keepers should keep a sharp look-out, and see that their doors and windows are properly fastened.

HOGS AND DOGS.—We are glad to learn that Mayor Volz is making arrangements for the enforcement of the Ordinance in relation to Hogs and Dogs. As soon as a proper place can be secured for a pound, we may expect to see porkers becoming rather scarce in the streets than they are at present. The ordinance would have been enforced some time ago, had not the Mayor found such a difficulty in procuring a pen; there appearing to be considerable reluctance on the part of property holders to rent a lot for that purpose.

ASSAULT AND BATTERY.—A German named Peter Roth was crossing the Monongahela Bridge on Tuesday, and proffered as payment for his toll a one dollar bill, which the toll-keeper refused to take; the German would agree nothing else, and persisted in his determination to drop which by right on a scuffle in which he was slightly injured. He afterwards brought suit before Mayor Volz for assault and battery, and had the toll-keeper held to bail to answer the charge.

TRAFFICS.—Yesterday afternoon, while the workmen employed in making excavations of the ground purchased by the Pennsylvania Railroad Company for a freight depot, came across, at a distance of about five feet below the surface, a large lot of cannon balls. As this forms a portion of the ground formerly occupied by old Fort Duquesne and Fort Pitt there is no doubt but that these balls formed a portion of the armaments of one of these forts.

DEATH BY DROWNING.—Last night, the watchman of the steamer Hercules, named Evans, while standing on the guard of the boat, lost his balance and fell into the water. Before assistance could be rendered, he passed under the boat and was drowned. His body was recovered about 2 o'clock this morning, when the Coroner held an inquest, and returned a verdict of accidental drowning.

MEETING OF SCHOOL DIRECTORS.—A meeting of the School Directors of the city was held last evening, in the Third Ward Public School House, for the purpose of nominating a Board of Controllers, according to the new School Law, out there not being a sufficient number present to accomplish the object, the meeting was adjourned until Tuesday, June 6th, at the same place.

MR. AND MRS. W. J. FLORENCE.—An excellent bill is offered this evening for exhibiting the peculiar talents of these favorite artists. Mrs. Flo dance of the Four Nations is a beautiful thing, and if any one can do it, Pat's countryman, he might indeed be fleet to all love for "that rich brogue." If you want to laugh and grow fat go and see Paddy the Piper.

HARPER FOR JUDGE.—Mr. Samuel B. Laufler has received the June number of this excellent periodical, and has it for sale at his establishment on Wood street. The present number does not fall behind it in interest to any that have preceded it. Call and get a copy.

MAN DROWNED.—A man named Welch, who was a deck passenger on the steamer Keystone State, on her upward passage last Saturday, fell into the river, near Bunfish, and was drowned. He has relations living in Washington, Pa.

PASSING COUNTERFEIT MONEY.—Thos. Roark, was arrested and brought before Ald. Hostley, yesterday afternoon, on a charge preferred against him by Gerlad Gallagher, of passing a three dollar counterfeit bill on him.

DETENTION.—The Express Train on the Ohio and Pennsylvania Railroad was detained five or six hours beyond its regular time, on Monday evening, the train being so heavy that the engine gave out near Salem.

DISTRICT COURT.—Before Hon. Moses Hampton, President Judge.

Leverton Thomas vs. James McDaniel; action to recover amount of two notes given by defendant to plaintiff. On trial.

No 80, July term, 1853, Reed & McComb vs. Elisha Bloomer. Amicable judgment by the case for $6000 and costs, with leave to issue execution for $4000, with interest from 10th May, 1853, thirty days thereafter, and for $1,000, with int. as at first on the same date, twelve months after said date, and for $1,000, with interest from the same date, two years after said 27th May, and for costs.

No 226, January term, 1853; same vs. same. Amicable. Judgment, terms of settlement.

The truth concerning Schiedam Vermifuge—A single trial producing wonders.—Read the following:

Perry tp., Jefferson co., Jan. 27, 1852.

Mr. R. E. SELLERS:—Sir—I bought of J. S. Reed on the 1st of your Vermifuge, and gave it to a child of mine, and it expelled 18 large Worms, and quite a number of small ones. C. MORGAN.

Gaskill tp., Jefferson co., Feb. 7, 1852.

Mr. R. E. SELLERS.—Having tried your Vermifuge to my family, I can say that it is not to be surpassed by any Vermifuge in the world for expelling Worms. G. ROGERS.

Winslow tp., Jefferson co., Feb. 17, 1852.

Mr. R. E. SELLERS.—I gave one bottle of your Vermifuge to my child, and it expelled 75 large Worms. I think it the best in use. Yours, respectfully, PETER DEVER.
