THE CITY POST. FRIDAY MORNING.....JULY 7 WE HAVE been requested to call attention to the advertisement of the committee of the board of mana-Lawrenceville, which is to take place on Baturus, and So'clock in the afternoon on the premises. This property is in a delightful neighborhood, as every one knows who is nainted with the situation of the Allegheny Cemetery some of the most elegant suburban residences about the city, and also in a healthy, retired locality. The terms of sale are quite moderate, only one-fourth being required in hand, whilst the balance can remain on interest for 12 para, if required. Persons wishing to attend the sale will be farnished with omnibus tickets, entitling them to a free ride in and out by calling at the office of James Blakely, DEATH IN JAIL .- A poor inebriate named Henry Mooney, who was committed to jail last Monday by Mayor Volz, for vagrancy and drunkenness, died in the too much reduced and worn out to sustain the awful afflic

SERIOUS ACCIDENT .- A serious accident occurred yesterday afternoon, at Wilmarth's Flouring Mill, in the Fifth Ward. Mr. Wm. Kent, a son of the Clerk of the Mill, while engaged working about one of the elevators allowed his arm to become entangled in the machine as sinews stripped off. He was taken to Dr. Walter's office. and the arm dressed in the best manner possible, although there is but little possibility that it can be saved.

THEATRE -Mr. M'Farland and Miss Sarah Woodbury, two artists of considerable talent from Fester's Varieties, Clevaland, made their first appearance last night here, in the favorite piece of Ingomar—Miss Woodbury and satisfactory manner.

This evening, Bulwer's beautiful play of The Lady of Pittsburgh and Cincinnati Steam Packet Line, ons will be presented, Mr. M'Pariand appearing as Claude Inotte, and Miss Woodbury as Pauline.

FALSE PRETENCES. - Archibald Wilson was mmitted to jail yesterday, by Ald. Major, on the charge of audulently obtaining goods to the amount of eight dollars from James Aiken. The accused called at the store of Aiken, and represented that his employer was indebted to truth only about three dollars were due him.

MONTALDI'S DICHAMAS. - A desire having on expressed by great numbers of the citizens of Allegheny, to witness these beautiful and interesting views on exhibition will be given this evening at Excelsion Hall The citizens of that place are not often favored with a exhibition so instructive and useful as that, and we hop they will show their good sense by crowding the Hall.

THERATERING TO KILL .- Alderman M'Masters yesterday issued a warrant for the arrest of a man named Bernard Killen, on the charge of having violently assaulted James Moore and wife, with an Intent to kill. The parties all reside at Port derry; and the assault wa made with an iron poker, with which Killen attempted t

ANOTHER DEATH FROM THE HEAT .- Coroner Lowry held an inquest, on Wednesday night, on the body of George Amon, who was found dead in a field, a short distance from the city, on the evening of the Fourth. The jury returned a verdict that he came to his death from the sive heat of the day, and drinking too much cold water.

RECOVERED.—The horse we noticed a few days ago as having been stolen from Dr. Hays, was discor-ered in the possession of a young but her living on Troy. Hill, who proved satisfactorily that he had traded for it on the Fourth. The horse is a valuable one, and the Doctor may congratulate himself on thus recovering it.

Assault and Battery .- Ellen Hoskens was committed to jail yesterday, by Alderman Major, for the hove offence, on each of Margaret McGee.

INOTE.—The quotations given in the following Review, it must be understood, are the wholesale prices, except when otherwise noticed.

The national holiday has had the usual effect upon the business of our market, so that neither the day before nor take day ster was there much done. We have therefore a small amount to report for the week ending to-day. Our merchants, however, have reason to be satisfied with the increased trade of the present year, as evinced by the first of grant trade of the present year, as evinced by the first of grant the hot summer months. The rivers are at very low stage, now—suspending all navigation except the running of low water boots.
