THE CITY POST.

THURSDAY MORNING.....JULY 20.

FREE SOIL MASS MEETING.—A mass meeting of the Free Sollers of the county, (or at least what was to have been a mass meeting, numbering, all told, about one hundred persons,) assembled yesterday morning at the Court House.

The meeting was called to order by Mr. George W. Jackson taking the Chair. Judge Heath was selected as Vice President, and Messrs. J. H. Foster and Robert Scraw, as Secretaries.

A committee of five were appointed to draft resolutions expressive of the sentiments of the Free Sollers of the county. After a short absence, the committee returned and read a series of resolutions, to the effect that as the Whigs of this county have made so many advances towards being admitted into the Free Soil ranks, and as there was actually little difference between the principles professed by the Free Sollers and the Whigs, it was thought expedient that they should both unite on the same county ticket; the committee, therefore, suggested that the nominations of the Whig convention should be endorsed by the convention, and recommended to the support of all Free Sollers.

After considerable discussion, during which many members spoke strongly against the idea of a fusion, the resolutions were at last passed.

A resolution was also passed, which stated that unless Judge Pollock came out openly and unequivocally for all the principles contended for by anti slavery men, the Free Sollers would stick to their State nominations, and support Mr. Potts.

THEATRE.—A splendid bill is offered this evening for the benefit of Mrs. Chas. Howard. This is positively the last night of her engagement in this city, and we confidently expect to see the Theatre crowded, despite the warm weather. No actress has ever performed here, who is more truly deserving of patronage than Mrs. Howard, and the enthusiastic praise so liberally accorded, testifies how well our Theatre goers appreciate her merits. She has been under the necessity of more prolonged applause than was bestowed on some of her personations; and several times, (a rare thing, by the way,) she has been compelled to repeat portions of her characters.

The beautiful piece of All that Glitters is not Gold, in which Mr. Chas. Howard will appear as Stephen Plush, and Mrs. Howard as Martha Gibbs, will be presented. Mr. M'Farland has consented to recite Drake's beautiful Ode to the American Flag. Monk Lewis' thrilling poem of the Maniac, will also be spoken by Mrs. Howard.

DISTRESSING ACCIDENT.—An Irishman named Andrew M'Ilnelly arrived in this city on Monday evening, and took lodging at a German boarding house, on Liberty street, in the Fifth Ward. About four o'clock the next morning, while in a somnambulic state, he rose from his bed, and after walking through the house, approached a front window in the second story, which he raised and stepped out of. In his descent, he fell through a large lamp, placed above the door, the iron rim of which inflicted a deep gash in his throat, and kept him suspended for a moment or so, but the whole fixture giving way, he was precipitated to the pavement, falling with his neck directly across a large scraper. He was injured so much that he died the same afternoon about six o'clock.

SHOCKING DEATH.—A young man named Doly, about eighteen years of age, was killed on Plane No. 6 of the Portage Road on last Saturday. He resided in Birmingham, and was employed as a hand on a section boat. At the time of the accident he was on the beam of an ascending truck. Before arriving at the top of the plane, he looked up to see what was coming down, when the lever of a descending truck struck him on the head, fracturing the skull so badly that the brains protruded. He lived about an hour and a half after the accident.

SERIOUSLY INJURED.—A young man, named William Jackson, while out shooting near Perrysville, on Tuesday afternoon, was badly injured by the bursting of his gun. A double lead had been placed in the weapon, to see what distance it would carry, but the barrel being old, would not stand the additional charge, and exploded in his hands. The concussion threw him insensible to the ground. One arm was broken in two places, and his face considerably disfigured.

BOY DROWNED.—Coroner Lowry yesterday evening was called to hold an inquest upon the body of a small boy, about six years of age, named Andrew Walker, who was drowned in the Monongahela, at Pratt's wharf, a little above the city. He was in bathing; but getting beyond his depth, was drowned before assistance could be rendered. His body was recovered in a few minutes afterwards, and every attempt made to resuscitate it, but with out avail.

DUQUESNE GREYS.—The Duquesne Greys had quite a pleasant time yesterday, at Campbell's Grove. About thirty-two muskets were present to contend for the prize medal, and a number of excellent shots made. The medal was awarded to Mr. James Petrie. A great many ladies were also present, and after the target firing was through, the balance of the day was spent in dancing on the grass to the music of Young's Brass Band.

GODEY'S LADY'S BOOK.—Miner & Co., No. 32 Smithfield street, have received the Lady's Book for August.

To Make Your Hair Curl.

WONDER OF THE WORLD.—The great wonder of the world this day at length been discovered. You cannot make hair white or black, but Mr. BYRON H. ROBB has at length procured the truth of the great secret, of curling hair simply, full and expeise, like to make the hair curl in ringlets, and wave in the most beautiful and graceful manner for life. The proprietor has traveled through various parts of Europe for upwards of nine years, in search of the celebrated chemist and physiologist, M. Jaques, and has at length found him in Italy, and purchased of him the receipt for the sum of $9,000. All persons having the most uncouth and coarse looking hair, can have it transformed into the most beautiful and curling appearance that could be desired. The composition of which the article is composed will not cost more than 50 cents, and but one application is necessary to the hair to cause it to curl and wave in the most uniform and perfect order for life, and thus improve the looks and appearance 100 per cent. We now offer this wonderful discovery to the world for the sum of $1.00.

Direct all letters to BYRON H. ROBB, Farmington, Trumbull county, Ohio, and the receipt will be immediately forwarded to the person. All letters must be post-paid to secure attention. jy6-3mw

Prince Gortschakoff, not the General, arrived at Vienna on the 4th July, as the bearer of the official reply of Russia to Austria. The precise terms of the reply have not transpired, but Gortschakoff also carried an autograph letter from Nicholas to Austria, the tenor of which is said to be that by evacuating Wallachia and leaving free the Danube, the Czar considers that he satisfies the reasonable demands of Austria. Moldavia is not to be evacuated, as the occupation of that principality is a necessary guarantee for the condition of a future peace.

Col. Mansfield arrived on the 6th, at Berlin, from St. Petersburg, with the Czar's reply to Prussia; it is courteous, and states that the Czar cannot resign the extensive protectorate over the Greek Christians. If the Turks accede to a joint protectorate of the five powers, the Czar will evacuate the Principalities when the Western Powers will evacuate Turkey, but he will retain a strong military position in Moldavia as a provisional security. The Czar also sent Col. Isakoff to Dresden with a friendly autograph letter to the King of Saxony and other Sovereigns who were represented in the Hamburg conference.

Meantime, hostilities continue: and fighting is reported from the Baltic, the black Sea, the Danube, and Asia.

The Austrians entered Wallachia, and the French army were embarking in English ships at Chebourg, for Finland.

Respecting the Austrian occupation of Wallachia, all that is known is, that on the 23, seventeen steamers, with Austrian troops on board, dropped down the Danube.

Napier's fleet was laying in line of battle before Cronstadt, up to June 29th, no attack had been made. The English frigate Desperate fired some shots, which the batteries returned.

Bomarsund was a second time bombarded on the 26th and 27th of June, and the fortifications were destroyed.

On the 24th of June, eight Russian steamers came out of Sebastopol, and attacked three of the allied ships at the entrance. The allied ships engaged were Furious and Terrible. There seems to have been a running fight, and considerable damage was done.

The main body of the allied fleet was at Baltjik. Some English boats were taking the soundings at noon.

Another action is reported from the mouth of the Danube on the 21st and 22d an important battle was fought. The Turks under Giroltz Mehemet Pasha fell on the Russians, surprised 25,000 men near Silistria, on the 21st. The battle lasted two days. The Russians lost 2,000 killed, but made good their retreat.

The allies continue to concentrate towards Sereth and Pruth. They apparently mean to retire to Matseka, Tultcha and Isaktcha, on the right bank of the Danube.

The plans of the campaign movements of the allied army are kept profoundly secret.

The cavalry is supposed to be advancing by land to Baltjik.

A telegraph is being built from Constantinople to Varna, Shumla, Widdin and Gallipoli.

Fifty thousand Anglo-French troops are still at Varna and Stamboul. Omer Pasheen was also there.

Gen. Bocquet's left division has left Adrianople for Shumla.

Omer Pasha is prepared to establish his headquarters at Rutschuk.

Communications from the Danube are kept open as far as Silistria by Turkish flotillas.

On the 17th of July, Gortschakoff removed his headquarters from Kalarasch to Wrelitzeni.

Personal Rencontre.

NEW YORK, July 19.—A cowhiding and revolver rencontre took place last evening, between Meagher, of the Sun, and McMasters, of the Evening Journal. The affair grew out of an editorial article in Saturday's Journal, reflecting severely on Mr. Meagher. Meagher attacked McMasters in the street, McMasters was armed with a revolver, and shot Meagher, slightly scratching his forehead. Meagher then closed with the revolver and a hard scuffle ensued, in which he clinched him. McMasters was thrown under, and terribly beaten.
