Three Story Brick Dwelling House, No. 110 Penn street, when Hay street and Franz' siley; and Lot 25 feet front, ending back 112 feet to an alley. The House is one of the tbuildings, and in one of the most pleasant neighbords in the city. MONDAY MORNING...... him the Russian view of the war, and had a look at the reverse side of the picture from that presented by the English and French journals. We quote from a letter of this correspondent the ollowing highly interesting paragraphs:

Russia considers that she has never re any serious defeat anywhere since the com-mencement of the war. She acknowledges a want of success at Silistria, but says that it required years to take that place in 1828-9, and that she expected it to require months to take it at present; and that it was not want of suc-cess that compelled her to retire, but the merci-ful attitude of Austria, which forced upon her a change of tactics. Prince Pashklowitch was only wounded in his honor at Silistria bis had time the Russian mine exploded, if the troops had been ordered to charge the Turks, through the gap, an excellent opportunity was offered to carry the place. The Prince did not favor the movement, contrary to the opinion of the other officers, and, it now appears, of the Emperor also, and be has been recalled to "consult with the Emperor"—which means that he has been

Two Hundred acres of superior Sione Coal, with House, Railroad, &r. This property has a front of 140 rods on the Monongashe in view; an excellent landing; good grade and mundation for railroad—with enough level ground at ease point for houses and gardens, or locations for manufactories. The vein is deep enough to allow horses to be used in handing ing out the coal—the quality of which, for iron work, steam; gas, or for any ordinary uses, is not surpassed by any in the country.

The contract of the Emperor "—which means that ne has been danished to his estate.

The Emperor "icholas has now changed his tettics. It is asserted positively that he has preferred to fight the Austrians to the Turks; he has been writing and expecting that Austria, from the line of conduct she has pursued to ward him, would declare war; and sa, every one knows, he has been constantly collecting the contract of contract for the contract of contract for the form the form the first the contract of contract for the first three forms that he may be an include the contract of the first three forms the first three forms the first three forms the first three forms the first three fir

No hopes for the independence of the latter country, at least, need be entertained. For some reason, the Emperor seems gratified at the opportunity which is presented to march on Vienna; perhaps because he knows that Austria will rive neither the sympathy or aid of Englanand France, and perhaps also because Austri: and France, and perhaps also occause Austria has treated him somewhat contemptuously on the Turkish question.
