DAILY MORNING POST.

SATURDAY MORNING.....AUGUST 12.

INTERFERENCE OF CONGRESSMEN.—The Nashville (Tenn.) Union says, during the late session of the Legislature, Judge Pepper of the Seventh Judicial District, presented to Governor Wise a son a fire-shovel, the workmanship of his own hands. The Judge is a blacksmith by trade. We presume he was a good one, as he makes an excellent Judge, to which office he was re-elected by a heavy majority at the late election of judicial officers by the people. The shovel was accepted by Governor Johnson, who was a good tailor before he became a distinguished statesman and politician, returned the compliment by cutting and making, with his own hands, a coat, which he presented to Judge Pepper.

NOT AT HOME.—Is Mr. Binster within?" "No, he is out of town," said the servant. "When can I see him?" "I don't know; have you any special business With Mr. Binster?" "Yes, there is a small bill which I have to settle." "Well," said the servant, "I don't know whether he will be home this week or not." "But I wish to pay the bill, as I am to leave town immediately." "Oh! you wish to pay him some money, he is up stairs, I'm thinking; I will call him. Please walk into the drawing-room; take a chair, sir; your hat if you please; Mr. Binster will be with you in a moment."

By the President of the United States.

A PROCLAMATION.

Whereas, by an act of the Legislature of the State of Iowa, entitled "An act for the disposal of the lands granted to the State of Iowa, by an act of Congress, approved September 4th, 1841, entitled 'An act to appropriate the proceeds of the sales of the public lands, and to grant pre-emption rights,' as extended to the State of Iowa by the act admitting said State into the Union," it is made the duty of the Governor of said State, to cause to be offered at public sale, at the seat of Government of said State, the following described lands, to wit:

Having recently our large and extensive stock of spring and summer goods, purchased from importers, manufacturers, and through our own importation, we feel safe in assuring our old customers, country merchants and city dealers generally, that owing to those acquired facilities in purchasing, we can offer such inducements to buyers as are rarely met with in the trade.

Among our dry goods stock will be found cashseeres, delaines, Portsmouth lawns of the most desirable designs, mohair lustres, alpacas, plain black and fancy figured silks, ginghams and fancy prints, latest styles; broadcloths, fancy tweedings, cassimeres, fatinets, tweeds and summer pantaloonings; brown and black sattinets, table diapers.

We have also opened a very large assortment of bonnets, newest styles, palm leaf hats, Rutland braid and Leghorn, and an extensive variety of hosiery, gloves and ribbons; with lace goods, fancy nettings, jaconette, mull and figured Swiss muslins and black silk veils, &c.

Our variety stock embraces in part combs, buttons, percussion caps, threads, port monnies, patent leather, perfumery, and almost every article usually kept in the variety line, together with a large stock of gold and silver watches, which we manufacture, gold and gilt jewelry of newest patterns, and a great variety of 30 hour and 8 day clocks, all of which will be sold at the lowest prices for cash or satisfactory approved paper.

N. B.—An early call from buyers is respectfully solicited.

New Goods at Reduced Prices.

YOUNG, STEVENSON & LOVE, No. 74 MARKET Street, between Fourth street and the Diamond, Pittsburgh, have just opened a very large and splendid assortment of seasonable Dry Goods, which have been purchased in large lots at auction, and from importers clearing out sales, at such prices as will enable them to sell many desirable styles for 25 per cent less than the cost of importation. Their goods have all been purchased from first hands, and, consequently, no second profit on them, which leaves us able to say that we can and do sell at as small profits as any house in the eastern cities. Therefore, we respectfully invite the attention of wholesale dealers and country merchants, to an inspection of our stock, and examine our extensive assortment of READY MADE CLOTHING. It is almost impossible to describe, in an advertisement, the quantity of merchandize to be seen at this large establishment; it is sufficient to say that it has never been equalled by the house itself.
