died at her residence in Washington on Monday. She had been an invalid for many years, and was attended in her last hours by Mrs. Fremont, formerly Miss Sallie Benton.

The Albany Register says there are more than $1,000,000 now lying unclaimed in the Savings Banks of New York State, some of which has been there fifty years, and suggests that the money should go to the State.

The verdict of the Court Martial which sat at: Philadelphia, on Commander Samuel W. Down- 1, coming slave States. ing, has just been made public. He was charged with disobedience of orders, dishonorable conduct, &c., &c., in assisting in the escape of Com. Coe, who betrayed the Argentine squadron into the hands of the dictator Rosas. The Court found him guilty of all the charges except the first, and the President having approved the verdict, he has been sentenced to be cashiered.
