An awful accident occurred at St. Louis on the 18th inst., by the blowing up of a building containing a dozen large bombs, rockets, &c. There were four men asleep in the upper part of the house at the time, two of whom--Augustars Catoir and Edward Lumen--were killed. Both were young men, and Catoir was a skilful pyrotechnist. Neither of them were married, but they have parents and other relatives resi-ding in New Orleans.
