Will the Whige in Allegbeny county, on this occasion, stand upon their numerical superiori-ty, or will they, out of consideration for the dis-tinguished, the unsurpassed abilities of Judge Shaler, and the honor which will be done to the district—to the State, and to the nation by such a representative, yield their party preferences, and elect Charles Shaler? When an opportuni ty is presented of placing in the National Coun-cils a mas so presubsently calculated to reflect the highest honor upon the district, will it not be embraced? We trust it may, and that not only Allegheny county, but also the whole State, may be honored by his presence in the National Councils. On the Assembly ticket, is the name of J.
