The Grand Council, by general consent, ac-knowledged the correctness of the statements published in the Pennylvanian in regard to the working of the 0rder. The President of the Council stated, that from information received, the exposure of the Grand Council of the United States was made through the folly of a member from Indianapolis. I.a., who had been to New States was made through the folly of a member from Indianapolia, I.a., who had been to New York to attend the National Convention of the Order, and on his way home, in passing through Philadelphia, he got intoxicated, and while in that state, the documents were stolen from him by some minion of the Pennsylvanian. The belief was freely expressed in the Coun-il Chamber, that if the Council had given the Demoorats the Governor, or if not the Governor the Canni Commissioner and Supreme Judge, the Order would have carried the State by an im-mense majority. In consequence of Mott only having been selected, the Demoorats were desert-ing the Lodges were broken up. naving ocen selected, the Democrats were desert-ing the Lodges in crowds, and in some instances the Lodges were broken up. It is stated by a large number of delegates in the Council that if the Pennsylvanian got hold of and published the proceedings of this Conven-tion, the whole Order throughout the State would be destroyed.
