MONDAY MORNING WASHINGTON NATIONAL MONUMENT .--- We be lieve it has been customary, several election past, for boxes to be placed near the polls, in order to give those who are patriotically disposed an opportunity to contribute towards the completion of this truly national undertaking. We hope this will not be forgotten to-morrow, and that the judges of each election district will see that boxes are put up for the receipt of such con-tributions. Ten cents given by each voter to-morrow would almost finish the monument. It morrow would almost finish the monument.
