THURSDAY MORNING Incount .- The jury empannelled on Tuesday evening to inquire into the death of Terence Clark, met yesterday afternoon at Ald. Parkinnon's office, when the annexed testimony was elicited.

county exhibition thus far. Although the at-tendance, perhaps, was not so great as the sec-ond day of the fair lastycer, yet when we take a into consideration the fact that the present is only a county exhibition, whilst the one previ-tous was a State Fair, we feel perfectly estisfied at the encouragement given. A continuance to-day of the face weather which has accompanied the show thus far, will doubtless draw an im-mense crowd, especially as this is the day of the trial of speed between the lady equestrians. Among the many attractive articles exhibited, the excite more attention than the specimens of beautiful furniture entered by H. H. Byan & Co. The work turned out from this establishment cannot be surpassed, and the apecimens on the As will be observed, the testimony shows con chaively that the deceased was outrageously is-suited and killed by John Kramer, without the alightest cause of offence having been given. It seems as if the assassin came to the setablish-meat where poor Clark was employed, with the deliberate intention of murdering him. We do The work turned out from this establishment cannot be surpassed, and the specimenes on the fair grounds only afford a fair idea of the char-acter of all the farmiture manufactured by them. heavy-built person, and described to be extreme-ly, quarrelsome in his disposition. Dr. James King, scorn.—Kramined the body of Terence Clark, and found a wound, inflicted by a sharp instrument, in the left side; the fifth rib was divided by the out, which penetrated the pericardium, and reached the left ventricle of the heart; the hemorrhage was very profuse, and no doabt cocasioned the death of the deceased. I also examined cursorily the abdominal organs and lungs; I found the instrument used must have been a dirk, or something of that tharse there as poer of the wound, the instrument used must have been a dirk, or something of that tharseter, and appeared to have been used with great force, as it cat through the rib.
