

The 11th Commandment.

T. B. Arthur tells a good story about a loving couple in New Jersey, who belong to the M. B. Church. One day, Mr. Arthur, Mr. M. and his wife...

While Mr. W. was out at his wood pile, a plain looking, courtly dressed, but quite-like a plain looking, courtly dressed, but quite-like a plain looking, courtly dressed, but quite-like...

The stranger, after warming himself, prepared to leave, but the host, who had been watching him, called him back. He asked for some refreshment...

The particular form in which this request was made, was the first time that the stranger had seen a man who was so kind and so generous...

"Not in the bedroom, even if Mr. N. should not mind," he said. "I don't see, Jane, how we can turn him out of doors. He doesn't look like a man who would be so easily turned out of doors..."

"I don't see, Jane, how we can turn him out of doors. He doesn't look like a man who would be so easily turned out of doors. He doesn't look like a man who would be so easily turned out of doors..."
