It lies upon the surface, it is self-demonstrable, palpable to all eyes. To overlook it is impossible; to double t, is to deny credence to the evidences of the senses. As a , is to deny createnes to his evaluation of mervous discase, whether means of relieving every form of nervous discase, whether suits or chronic, continuous or spasmodics whether affect ing the springs of motion, or the sources of same has not, it has never had an equal. In neuralgia, tic dolo reaux, rheumatism, general enervation of the system, morold melancholy, hysteria, spasms, paralysis, epilepsy, palpiation of the heart, &c., it produces a most astonishing tation of the neary, ac, it produces a most amountaines effect-rallying, bracing, it might almost be said electrify-ing, both body and mind, and replacing torpor and weak-ness with energy and strength. As a stomachic, it has properties no less poritive and potent. The weakest stomac covers its right, or receives it, if never before enjoyed, under the influence of this great tonic, which not only enovates the digestive powers, but concarres the vigor it reacts, and perpetuates the health it restores. This is the creates, and perpetuates the health it restores. This is undeclaration not of one or of two, but of thousands. The declaration not of one or of two, but of thousands.
