. Mille. Ruchel, the distinguished French tragedienne, has been prosecuted for refusing to produce a play in which she engaged to take the leading part, but which she finally omitted to do, because, as was alleged, she had been promised 1,200,000 francs to come and play an engagement in America. The State Treasurer of Ohio gives notice that

Truman Smith, late U. S. Senator from Connecticut, has formed a professional connection with E. Sceley, Esq., of New York. Mr. Seeley is a lawyer of high standing, and distinguished for the breadth of his legal learning and his logical vigor. The two will make a strong tion of being one one of the best lawyers in Connecticut, which implies no ordinary merit. Two more Arctic expeditions have been decided upon by the British Admiralty. One in boats, to go down the Mackenzie river, in search of Captain Collingon, about the safety of whom there is now some anxiety; the other in cances down Back's Fish river, to make further inqui ries into the fate of Sir J. Franklin's people, and to endeavor to obtain some more relice connection. Mr. Smith has enjoyed the reputaand, should any of the remains of the dead be found, to place them decently under ground. FOREIGN AFFAIRS.

The late foreign news is of much interest tion of Europe. There seems to be now no nominations. We will not have any very defiprospect of Prussia joining the allies against Russia. She adheres to her position of neutrality. But the temper of the allies will soon drive Prussia into active hostilities on the side of Rusia; and her splendid army of 350,000 men will be added to the hosts of the Czar. This would nearly equalize the contest on land, with the advantage to the Czar of having the basis of his operations within his awn domains, and his ally an adjacent nation. Austria, it is said, will declare war against Russia. A company of French nearly equalize the contest on land, with the adclare war against Russia. A company of French capitalists are to lease from the Austrian govern-
