THE CITY POST.

SATURDAY MORNING:.....NOVEMBER 18.

BURGLARY IN ALLEGHENY.—The house of Alderman Neillie, situated on the corner of Anderson and Robinson streets, Allegheny, was entered by a burglar on Thursday morning, about 2 o'clock. The 'Squire hearing a noise got up, and upon going to the top of the stairs, perceived a man opening a door which led out into Robinson street. His first impulse was to fire at the robber with a pistol, which he held in his hand, but, upon second thought, desired it better (perceiving he was unnoticed) to try and effect his capture. Stealing softly down he seized the villain, and locked him up in the front office. When morning came, the man gave his name as Joseph Shaw, and excused himself by saying he had been drinking. The magistrate thinking this was a valid excuse, fined the culprit for drunkenness and left him go. He is well known as a loafer and a vagabond in Allegheny, but this is the first time we ever heard of his being caught in so serious a crime.

DR. ELDER'S LECTURE TO-NIGHT.—Dr. Elder, whose lecture on "Intuition" last Tuesday night was listened to with manifest attention, and received with great applause by a large and intelligent audience, will give another to night, at Masonic Hall. The subject—"Republicanism, in Word and Deed"—is somewhat hackneyed, to be sure, but from the known ability of the Dr. as a lecturer and a writer, we feel satisfied that the lecture will be decidedly original; and those who hear it will indeed enjoy a rich intellectual feast. The "Young Men's Mercantile Library Association" certainly deserves the thanks of our citizens for having secured Dr. Elder to lecture here, and we bespeak for him a crowded house this evening.

DISTRICT COURT.—Before Hon. H. W. Williams.

FRIDAY, November 17.

The jury in the case of Grubbs vs. Sample (reported yesterday,) returned a verdict of six and a quarter cents damages for plaintiff.

George Walter, by his father, vs. Robert Sample. This is an action similar to the one above —for malicious prosecution of defendant and several other boys. On trial.

BAPTIST CHURCH CASE.—The taking of evidence in the Baptist Church assault and battery cases, which has occupied the attention of the Court of Quarter Sessions since Wednesday morning, was finally concluded yesterday at noon, and the balance of the day closed out to the argument of counsel. Judge M'Clure will deliver his charge this morning, after which the case will be given to the jury.

A WARRANT was yesterday issued, by Alderman Parkinson, for the apprehension of John Chaleman, charged, on oath of John Miller, with stealing a pair of pants, a shirt, and a gold watch chain valued at $15. The defendant and prosecutor were both boarders at Lang's public house, in the Fifth Ward, and occupied the same room. It is alleged that Chaleman got up in the night time, and made way with the articles.

BREACH OF TRUST.—A man named John Brown was held to bail, yesterday, by Alderman Major, for obtaining forty dollars from George Booth, under false pretences. The money was given by plaintiff to defendant to be sent to Booth's wife; this, however, the defendant did not do; but instead, appropriated the money to his own use. The offence is more a breach of trust than a false pretence.

LARCENY.—A colored man named James Wilson was committed to jail yesterday, by Alderman Lewis, charged with the constructive larceny of a five dollar gold piece from John M'Laughlin, a shoemaker, on Third street. Wilson received the money in change from the prosecutor as a quarter dollar, and when the mistake was discovered refused to give it back.

RELEASE OF MR. ALVIN WILKINS.—Mr. Alvin Wilkins was yesterday brought out of jail on a writ of habeas corpus, and taken before Judge M'Clure, who discharged him from custody, on security in the sum of $5,000 being given for his appearance at the December term of court. Benjamin Glade, Esq., the father-in-law of Mr. Wilkins, appeared as his bail.

A WOMAN WITH WOODEN SHOES passed down town yesterday, which some persons suggest is indicative of a hard winter. If so, persons who are affected with coughs and colds, and breast complaints, had better be on the look out, and provide themselves with chest protectors and a Pectoral Syrup," both of which can be had at Dr. Keyser's, 140 Wood street. 1t

ASSAULT AND BATTERY.—John Lutz, the proprietor of a drinking house in the Fifth Ward, was held to bail, yesterday, by Alderman Parkinson, for assaulting and beating P. M'Alister with a slung shot.

DISORDERLY CONDUCT.—Mayor Volz yesterday fined James Welsh $25 and costs, for disorderly conduct and abusing his wife. This is the second time he has been fined for the same offence within a month.

SURETY OF THE PEACE.—Henry Bopp was committed to jail yesterday, by Justice Elcessor, of Shaler township, for surety of the peace, on oath of Mary Ann Bowder.

Monetary Affairs.

The Philadelphia Ledger of Thursday has the following in regard to the monetary affairs in that city:

"There was a fair amount of business in stocks yesterday, the market closing dull at quotations. Some $25,000 of loans, and about 2,500 shares sold. State fives and Reading Railroad sixes declined ¼ each. Morris Canal ½, and Reading Railroad shares ¼. Pennsylvania Railroad shares improved ½. There is a good deal of commercial paper on the market, and as the banks are discounting, little street rates are maintained at the highest point."

In New York the Post of the same afternoon says:

"Money is in much demand, and discount rates are firm. The banks are not expected to lose specie this week, but it is not anticipated they will gain much. The quotet rates in the street are 12@15 ₰ cent. for first class paper, and 18 upwards for other kinds. The stock market feels the influence of the cries of the West very powerfully, though there is no want of money supplies for loans on call. Erie declined further 3⅝ ₰ cent; Reading, 1⅝.

Hog Killing—Prices.

The weather for the past day or two has been suitable for hog slaughtering, but the supplies being light, the market unsettled, and money very scarce, no activity or animation has been observable. The mammoth house of Hull, Hunt & Co. killed 1,300 hogs yesterday, their entire number thus far footing up 6,000. Mr. William Jarvis & Co.'s 4,500 hogs have been killed up to last evening. Ousley, Kinnard & Co. packed 1,000 fat hogs on Monday, and E. L. Hoffman & Co. commenced yesterday with the slaughter of 1,000 head. The entire packing thus far this season around the Falls, including 700 head at New Albany, is upwards of 21,000 head. In the packing this season, as far as estimated, there is a material falling off in weight, with but one or two lots of hogs averaging over 200 pounds net. Prices rule very dull, with, however, a marked firmness on the part of holders, and no disposition on the part of buyers to enter the market, or offer over 4½ cents net on time. In Shelby and Scott counties various sales of hogs have been made at 3½ or 3 cents gross, on four months time, the sellers being such farmers whose supply of corn was exhausted. In Cincinnati, owing mainly to the money pressure, the market continues flat, and sales of hogs were made yesterday at $4.62½.
[Louisville Courier, 15th.

Bituminous Coal.

The stock of Pittsburgh coal in this market is unusually light, and just now no prospect of a rise of water to bring out another supply. This will have a tendency to enhance price, as the stock on hand is in the hands of a few dealers. The estimated amount is 113,000 bushels in first hands, and the retail price yesterday was 20 cents per bushel. Very many of the heaviest consumers, the rolling mill and other are nearly out of coal, and a ready market could be found for a very large amount.—Louisville Courier, 15th.

A MARKABLE CURE.—I hereby certify that I was afflicted with the Liver Complaint for the space of a long time, being more than a year under the care of a physician, but the process of curing relieved by the medicines I took, kept gradually failing more, my body swelling so that I was unable to stoop low enough to tie my shoes. When I got to the last bottle of the 2, I was recommended to try SELLERS' LIVER PILLS. I did so and was relieved greatly by the use of the first box, and completely cured by the second.
