

Daily Morning Post

FRIDAY MORNING, DECEMBER 1, 1911

MORNING POST JOB OFFICE. We would call the attention of MERCHANTS and BUSINESS MEN to the fact that we have just received from Philadelphia a number of sets of new Job Types, and are now prepared to fill orders for the same.

THANKSGIVING DAY AND THURSDAY. Many Christmas and Thanksgiving cards are being sent out, and we are now prepared to fill orders for the same.

THE BODILY OF MR. WHITNEY WAS FOUND Sunday evening, at the house of W. H. Howe, on Hill's farm, a mile or two north-west of Columbus, Ohio. Both of these men were of interposing habits. Howe has been arrested for his murder.

OUR FRIEND X HAS PLACED US IN A dilemma similar to that which our good nature would induce us to relieve his feelings by coming down to sign our platform, when we think of our reputation, we feel that we cannot afford it.

THE QUESTION OF AN APPEAL THANKSGIVING DAY, we believe, among the Puritan of New England. As they were a Christian people, and we are a Christian people, we may suppose they took the history of Christianity for a precedent.

WHY ARE MEN AWAY FROM FRIDAY? We shall give our explanations on this point as soon as we can, and our correspondent must be patient. We are sure that the fact that the festive character of the custom is the well known fact that Friday has long been reckoned, by popular superstition, an unlucky day.
