BATHING IN THE EAST. Daily Marting Just BY BAYARD TAYLOR.

No swan-soft woman, rubb 1 with lucid oils, The gift of an enrmored god, more fair. Brc.oning.

We shall not soon set out from Damascus-we shall not leave the Pearl of the Orient to all mer through the seas of the folinge wherefin it best buried-without consecrations a day to the fact that material agent of peace and goodwill unto mcn. We have bathed in the Jordan, like Nanmap, and been made clean; let us now see whether Abana and Pharpar, rivers of Da-mascus, are botter than the waters of Israel. The Bath is the "peculiar institution" of the East. Coffee has become colonized in France.

East. Concernation of the Pipe is a cosmopolite, and and America; the Pipe is a cosmopolite, and his blue, joyous breath congeals under the Arc his blue, joyous breath congeals under the soft air o his blue; joyous breath congents under the Aro-tic Circle, or melts languidly into the soft air of the Polynesian Isles; but the Bath, that sen-suous elysium which cradled the dreams of Plato, and the visions of Zoroaster, and the so-Fisto, and the visions of Zerosster, and the Bo-lemn meditations of Mahomet, is only to be found under an Oriental sky. The naked na-tives of the torrid zone are amphibious; they do not bathe, they live in water. The European and Anglo-American wash themselves and think they have have had the shudder under sold they have bathed; they shudder under

A platform about fire feet in height runs around the shall, and on this are ranged a number of narrow conches, with their heads to the writ. ERNMENT. The Philadelphia North American and Guzette takes up the article we lately published in relike the pallets in a hospital ward. The plat-form is covered with straw matting, and from gard to the proposition to remove our State goverv which rises above it are suthinks we were "boiling over with indignation" pended towels, with blue and crimson bonlers.

The master receives us courtcously, and con-ducts us to one of the vacant couches. We kick ducts us to one of the vacant couches. We kick off our red slippers below, and mount the stope of to the flatform. Yonder traveler, in Frank boots on, and we know, from that fact, what sort of a bath haw will get. As the work of disrobing proceeds, a diark-eyed by appears with a mapkin, which he holds before ma, ready to bind it about the waist, as before us, ready to bind it about the waist, as before us, ready to bind it about the waist, as soon as we regain our primitive form. Another attendant throws a napkin over our shoulders, and wraps a third around our head, turban-wise. He then thrust a pair of wooden clogs wise. He then thrust a pair of wooden clogs steadies our tettering and clattering stops, as we pass through a low door and a warm ante-chamber into the first hall of the bath. The light, falling dimly through a cluster of bull's-eyes in the domed cellure, shows first, a silver eady to bind it about the waist, as as the capital of Mas eyes in the domed ceiling, shows first, a silver not exactly in point.
