A NEW YEAR'S GIFT. THE SATURDAY MORNING POST.

Any one who would make himself a New Year's present that will last the whole of the year 1855, for the trifling sum of two dollars, or who would make a gift to some friend or ac-

the with less of this world's goods than himself, and one that would remind him for welve months of the munificance of the donor, could not make a more judicious investment than by subscribing for the SATURDAY MORNING Posr. On the other hand, if any friend of ours wishes to make us an acceptable present, let him get us up a club of ten subscribers at one dollar each, in return for which we will send him ten copies of the paper for a whole year. The numissued to-day contains the following:
