> SHOOKING DISTRESS FROM POVERTY. - The New York papers record the suicide of John Murpby, an Englishman, recently arrived in this country, who had become deranged by the want of employment and the consequent suffering of his family. His family had been without food for two days, when the wife yielded to her ne cessities and went to the Committee of Relief for the Poor, to obtain some assistance. In her absence, the husband out his throat, and during the inquest upon the father, the mother re ceived news of the death of her child from want of food. The case has excited the sympathies of the citizens, and doubtless the remainder of the family will be taken care of The case suggests whether there may not be similar suffering in our midst, and if it is no mand to search them out and relieve the wants of the destitute.
