THE TARIFF.

It has been stated in many of the papers that at a caucus of the Democratic members of Congress lately at Washington it was resolved that the ports of foreign merchandize will be greatly reduced for the next year, and probably for neveral years to come. The country is not able to buy foreign goods as heretofore. We cannot spare the money; and can no longer pay in railroad, or even government bonds for so large an amount of goods as have been bought in past years. The imports must fall off : and the revenue be consequently reduced. Our law-makers need be in no haste to reduce the tariff to a revenue standard. The reduction of imports will accomplish that object probably within the next year. Then the expenditures of the government are to be considerably increased. Four new regiments are to be added to the army : and the pay of the officers and soldiers in creased. Six new war steamers are now in progress of construction, and will probably cost a million dollars each. Several more smaller vessels of war will doubtless be commenced, and they are needed. The navy must be strengthened at large expense. The security of our combence and our coasts require it; and it will be done. Then it is proposed to increase the pay of members of Congress, of foreign consuls and of clerks of Departments. The expenses of the government are increasing, and its receipts from customs will be much less next year. The "revenue standard" may soon be reached without the country. A summary comparison for the selection of the tariff.

It is to be hoped the imports will fall off in amount. To instance one item: It is stated that this country imports annually, manufac tured silks to the amount of nearly thirty million dollars. It is impossible to prevent an increase of expenditures by the general government. The exent and the growth of the commerce of the New road at Harbor Creek, five country requires an increase of naval force for its protection. The harbors of the lately acquired Pacific coast must be fortified. The formation of new territories imposes new burdens on the Treasury. The surveys of boundary lines and coast surveys cost large sums. It is now proposed to increase the pay of members of Congress. The expenses of the government George G.
